Becoming a Catholic Christian

The parish has a year-round/on-going process to assist adults in becoming Catholic. It also has a special program for older unbaptized children. Both can start any time. Call Deacon George (868-2310) for further information

Sacrament of Marriage

Engaged couples begin preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage at least 6 months before their wedding.

Please remember—a wedding date will not be scheduled until the assessment of their readiness for the Sacrament of Marriage has been completed. Contact the rectory for more information. Weddings are not scheduled during the Season of Lent.

Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament is for those having surgery, the seriously ill, the chronically ill, and those near death. If you know in advance that you are going to the hospital, call one of the priests to arrange for anointing at home or church. In addition the sacrament is celebrated at church on the first Saturday of the month after evening Mass and on the third Sunday of the month after 8:00 Mass. It may be repeated as needed.

A PLEDGE TO PARISH LIFE

My parish is composed of people like me. I help make it what it is. It will be friendly, if I am. Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.

It will do great work, if I work. It will make generous gifts to causes, if I am a generous giver.

It will bring other people into its community, if I invite and bring them.

It will be a parish of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, and a parish with a noble spirit, if I, who make it what it is, am filled with these same things.

Therefore, with the help of God, I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be.

CLEVERLY, FROM OUT OF NO WHERE, St. Luke uses King Herod, a man of little or no faith, to ask today's critical Gospel question: "Who is this man about whom I hear such things?" (Luke 9:9) Many paid attention to Jesus' teaching, were in wonder of his power over nature, and sought physical and spiritual healings. All of which also left Herod "very curious to see Jesus". (Luke 9:9) This key question tells us what to look for in the most familiar story of the multiplication of the loaves and fish: the true identity and mission of Jesus. Herod's question and curiosity are elements of everyone's spiritual life!

Early in the story we also discover what might be called the Apostles' question, unspoken, but definitely written between the lines: How can we do this? as Jesus clearly commands them, "Give them some food yourselves." (Luke 9:13) In calling the Apostles and Herod to eternal life, we now learn something important about our own identity and mission. We are the way, the instrument, by which God intends to call all peoples to the fullness of life now and forever. As with the Apostles, even for Herod, only one thing is required: practice, that we rehearse now for the reign of God.

This is why I have been asking the leaders of our parish to take a careful look at how our parish is organized. In a sense by asking Herod's question we can refresh our understanding of who Jesus is and why he lived among us. And by asking the Apostles' question we can remember why we are here as a parish.

CHARITY

Love is an extraordinary force which leads people to opt for courageous and generous engagement in the field of justice and peace. It gives real substance to the personal relationships with God and neighbor; with friends, family, and small groups; but also social, economic, and political relationships.

During May I met with our Parish Pastoral Council and Finance Committee to begin these discussions. This week I will be meeting with our Pastoral Leadership Team to explore with them too some first steps we might take to better organize our parish for the future. I ask and encourage everyone to pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit in these "holy conversations".

"To love someone is to desire that person's good and to take effective steps to secure it. Besides the good of the individual, there is the good that is linked to living in society: the common good. It is the good of 'all of us'. It paves the way for eternity through temporal action."

From Charity in Truth, Benedict XVI

I would also like to announce today that the last formal meeting of our Parish Pastoral Council will take place on Tuesday, June 22nd. This group has generously served our parish for the past four years. They have graciously agreed to meet with me in the coming year whenever I might need their advice. Please join me in thanking them for their service and in prayer that they—and our parish—will always know the blessing of the time they have given.

Patrick Barrett	Anna Petroff
Betty Easley	Ted Piekutowski
Gina Keppler	Judi Sams
Judy Mantych	Bob Stolte

Over the next year as we carefully look at our "religious organization" we will also determine the make-up and manner of selecting a new Council for our parish. Our best hope for the future is that we do this carefully and prayerfully. When you are asked to join this "holy conversation" I encourage you to do so willingly.

TRUTH

Truth creates dialogue, and hence communication and communion. It enables us to let go of our subjective opinions and impressions, allows us to move beyond cultural and historical limitations and to come together in the assessment of the value and substance of things.

WASHING IS A GOOD THING

The season for fresh fruits and vegetables is here. Is there anything better than fresh garden tomatoes, or sweet strawberries? Have you wondered how much you should wash them before eating them? Here are some produce safety guidelines that are provided by Foodsafety.gov:

- Take 20 seconds to wash hands with warm water and soap before and after preparing fresh produce.
- Wash fruits and vegetables under running water just before eating, cutting or cooking.
- Clean running water is all you need when washing produce; don't worry about using soap or other chemicals.
- Scrub melons, cucumbers and other firm produce with a clean produce brush.
- It's important to wash all fruits and veggies, even if you plan to peel them before eating. You don't want the knife to drag germs and bacteria from the rind into the food's flesh.
- Use a clean cloth towel or paper towel to dry produce.

If you are interested in finding some organic, home grown produce at a very reasonable price, consider going to :

Father Tolton Center

Topic: Caregiving—Cradle of God's Grace
How to Truly Honor Your Child, Spouse, or Aging Parent Without Losing Yourself in the Process

Who Should Come? Anyone involved in Caregiving of any sort, whether this Caregiving Involves direct physical care, indirect care, care, support care... whether their loved one is living her or far. This program presents the ten fundamental universal principles of Christian Caregiving.

Many of us are called into the Caregiving role with very little, if any preparation. We want to help...we truly do; yet, we may often feel conflicted. Caregiving demands much of us; some of us are called to give direct care, others distance care, still others a care of management. We're called to care for our children, our spouses, our parents, and others. Whatever type of we're called to perform, we cannot forget to care for ourselves. Jesus did command us to honor others but never asked that we dishonor ourselves in the process. Caregivers receive a special grace, a stream of grace that uplifts and sustains us, protects and propels us closer to God. Caregiving is essentially a faith journey, a pilgrimage to our very soul. Come learn some straight answers that help you serve others' needs without ignoring your own.

ST. NORBERT'S PARISH has invited us to learn more about the Neighborhood Church Community Movement — small groups meeting in homes to pray, to share faith, and to discuss ways of serving others — "encouraging lay people to build up their gifts and to build up the Kingdom of God". Small groups are more aware of the unchurched in their neighborhoods, more in a position to bring people back and new people to the faith. They can also respond almost immediately to the needs of the parish as a whole.

They are offering the following free information sessions for interested parishioners and parish leaders. You can attend any one, several, or all the sessions. I encourage everyone to think and pray about the value this might have for you personally or for our parish. If you would like to talk more about this or have any questions, let me know.
