Becoming a Catholic Christian

The parish has a year-round/on-going process to assist adults in becoming Catholic. It also has a special program for older unbaptized children. Both can start any time. Call Deacon George (868-2310) for further information

Sacrament of Marriage

Engaged couples begin preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage at least 6 months before their wedding.

Please remember—a wedding date will not be scheduled until the assessment of their readiness for the Sacrament of Marriage has been completed. Contact the rectory for more information. Weddings are not scheduled during the Season of Lent.

Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament is for those having surgery, the seriously ill, the chronically ill, and those near death. If you know in advance that you are going to the hospital, call one of the priests to arrange for anointing at home or church. In addition the sacrament is celebrated at church on the first Saturday of the month after evening Mass and on the third Sunday of the month after 8:00 Mass. It may be repeated as needed.

A PLEDGE TO PARISH LIFE

My parish is composed of people like me. I help make it what it is. It will be friendly, if I am. Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.

It will do great work, if I work. It will make generous gifts to causes, if I am a generous giver.

It will bring other people into its community, if I invite and bring them.

It will be a parish of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, and a parish with a noble spirit, if I, who make it what it is, am filled with these same things.

Therefore, with the help of God, I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be.

*The life of a Christian steward, lived in imitation of the life of Christ, is challenging,
even difficult in many ways;
but both here and hereafter
it is charged with intense joy.*

*Stewardship: A Disciple's Response
Pastoral Letter of U.S. Bishops*

FREEDOM IS NOT FREE.

Today St. Luke gives us a special opportunity to consider both the civic and sacred character of this popular slogan. The openness and willingness of Jesus' followers to be trained in the disciplines of his mission of salvation enables them to experience the power of real freedom. It also makes possible the liberation—setting free—of many others, especially those most in need.

They return from their first mission with enthusiasm. They recount their success in the struggle against the “demons” of pain, sickness, ignorance, and evil—their experience of power ministering in the name of Jesus. Jewish tradition imagined Satan in the throne room of heaven bartering with God over the well-being of humankind. Satan's fall is all about the realm of evil yielding to the emerging reign of truth, justice, and peace in Jesus—now the task of every believer.

*“Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name.
Jesus said, ...*

*I have given you the power
to tread upon serpents and scorpions and upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you ...
rejoice because your names are written in heaven.”*

Gospel of Luke 10: 18-20

The Gospel today offers us a chance to grow in real freedom by rethinking our priorities and renewing our enthusiasm. This holiday weekend invites us to remember, our “freedom is not free”. We need to be grateful for the sacrifice of many who have and continue to make it possible. Some day all of us will be called to give an account of ourselves before Jesus. Will there be great rejoicing? This familiar hymn lays down the ultimate challenge of discipleship and celebrates the ultimate victory of the reign of God over all opposing forces.

In the beauty of the lilies

Christ was born across the sea,

With a glory in his bosom

that transfigures you and me;

As he died to make us holy,

let us die that all be free!

While God is marching on.

Glory! Hallelujah!

His truth is marching on.

Final Verse, Battle Hymn of the Republic

With burning hearts

PLAN NOW how you will be a part of celebrating our parish's 5th Anniversary. We will celebrate Mass with Archbishop Carlson on Saturday evening, July 24th at 5:00pm. Following Mass at 6:30pm there will be a Buffet Dinner to which everyone is invited. If you are unable to attend on Saturday evening there will also be a special anniversary Mass on Sunday morning, July 25th at 10:00am. In order to make this as special a celebration as possible, there will only be one Sunday Mass on this day.

“Your belonging to the Church can find no greater expression or support than by sharing in the Eucharist every Sunday in your parishes.”

Pope John Paul II, St. Louis, January 26th, 1999

OUR PARISH IS BLESSED with many members who are actively involved in the various Liturgical Ministries that are such an important part of the sacramental life of our community. We now have a special need for more Servers for the celebration of Mass. I would ask our children, teens and young adults, and older adults to seriously consider volunteering. This is a great stewardship opportunity for anyone. Everyone will receive the training they need and scheduling is quite flexible. If you have any questions or would like to volunteer, please call Lynda Brand, 314-388-1244.

THIS WEEK I will be making my annual retreat at St. Meinrad's Monastery in Indiana. On Monday Mass for the holiday will be celebrated at 9:00am. Tuesday through Friday, Mass will be celebrated at 8:00am by Fr. David Polek, CSSR. Next weekend Fr. David Meconi, SJ will be the presider for all weekend Masses. Fr. Meconi is the Director for the undergraduate and graduate studies theology program at St. Louis University. He is also the Editor of the Homiletic and Pastoral Review. Please welcome these visiting priests to our parish. Pray well with them and do whatever you can to bless them in the hospitality of our parish community. We do it very well!

BARBEQUE AND FOOD SAFETY

Cooking outdoors was once only a summer activity. Now it is a year round activity. It is important to follow safety guidelines to prevent harmful bacteria from multiplying and causing food borne illness.

- HOME FIRST. Plan to drive directly home from the grocery store. You may want to take a cooler with ice for perishables if the temperature is 90 or over.
- THAW SAFELY. Use the refrigerator for slow, safe thawing or thaw sealed packages in cold water.
- MARINATING. Marinate food in the refrigerator, not on the counter. If the marinade used on the meat is to be reused, make sure to let it come to a boil first to destroy any harmful bacteria.
- TRANSPORTING. When carrying food to another location, keep it cold to minimize bacterial growth.
- KEEP COLD FOOD COLD. When using a cooler, keep it out of the direct sun. Pack beverages in one cooler and perishables in a separate cooler.
- KEEP HOT FOOD HOT. After cooking meat and poultry on the grill, keep it hot until served.
- SERVING THE FOOD. Use a clean platter. Don't put cooked food on the same platter that held raw meat or poultry.
- LEFTOVERS. Discard any food left out more than 2 hours. 1 hour if temp is over 90.
- WHEN IN DOUBT...THROW IT OUT.

Have a safe and fun 4th of July. Let us all thank God for our gift of freedom.
