Becoming a Catholic Christian

The parish has a year-round/ongoing process to assist adults in becoming Catholic. It also has a special program for older unbaptized children. Both can start any time. Call Deacon George (868-2310) for further information

Sacrament of Marriage

Engaged couples begin preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage at least 6 months before their wedding. Please remember—a wedding date will not be scheduled until the assessment of their readiness for the Sacrament of Marriage has been completed. Contact the rectory for more information. Weddings are not scheduled during the Season of Lent.

Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament is for those having surgery, the seriously ill, the chronically ill, and those near death. If you know in advance that you are going to the hospital, call one of the priests to arrange for anointing at home or church. In addition the sacrament is celebrated at church on the first Saturday of the month after evening Mass and on the third Sunday of the month after 8:00 Mass. It may be repeated as needed.

A PLEDGE TO PARISH LIFE

My parish is composed of people like me. I help make it what it is. It will be friendly, if I am. Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.

It will do great work, if I work It will make generous gifts to causes, if I am a generous giver.

> It will bring other people into its community, if I invite and bring them.

It will be a parish of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, and a parish with a noble spirit, if I, who make it what it is, am filled with these same things

Therefore, with the help of God, I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be.

Blessed Are The Vigilant

Happiness Is Paying Attention

THE GOSPEL REMINDS US that, as servants of Jesus, we must be vigilant and faithful always. We must show Jesus' care and concern for others, and we seek to do this as Jesus himself did. Our mission is not to calculate when the Master will return, but to live in and by his abiding presence now.

Faithful discipleship cannot be calculated only by time spent in church, how much we give to the poor, time spent in personal prayer. Faithful discipleship must also include vigilant response to others, genuine care for them, and reaching out as Jesus himself would. Because of this kind of fidelity, the Master is never really absent.

"Brothers and sisters:

Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not see."

Letter to the Hebrews 11:1-2

In "summer school" this year I was again reminded of the value and the importance of "pay attention" to all things and every person around me. When I do, I often discover or re-discover something beautiful, someone wise or good, and more of the "connections" I have with the people I'm with and the places I go. Their cares and worries become more my own. Our dreams and hopes seem to become more real. For as long as we live "paying attention" is the first step and most important step in "faithful discipleship". Taking and re-taking this step is the surest way of knowing - like Abraham also had to learn - that God's promises can be trusted. "Pay attention" is the virtue that most helps us to be good stewards.

Father, we come, reborn in the Spirit, to celebrate our life in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Touch our hearts,

help them grow toward the life you have promised.

Touch our lives.

make them signs of your love for all peoples.

Opening Prayer, Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

UR PARISH IS BLESSED with many members who are actively involved in the various Liturgical Ministries that are an important part of the sacramental life of our community. We now need for more Servers for Mass. I ask our children, teens and young adults, and older adults to prayerfully consider volunteering. This is a great stewardship opportunity for anyone. Everyone will receive the training they need and scheduling is quite flexible. If you have any questions or would like to volunteer, please call Lynda Brand, 314-388-1244.

INALLY, IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS about the financial reports published in last week's bulletin, please don't hesitate to call Bill Krenn (314-868-1391) or Juanita Blackshear (314-868-2310). Also, if you would like to serve our parish as a member of the Finance Committee, please don't hesitate to contact Father Mike to talk more about your interest. Your knowledge and skills or your experience could be an important gift for the vitality and future of our parish. Pray about it. Talk it over with someone you trust. Find a way to put your gifts at the service of our parish. Be a part of how our community really knows that God can be trusted.

ATTITUDE & CAREGIVING

Does your "caregiver" stress worsen or get better due to your true nature? By true nature, I mean, are you typically a pessimist, optimist, or a realist? Anyone of these may color your stress level as a caregiver. Let's take a look.

If you're a Pessimist: Pessimistic caregivers tend to have a negative outlook, blame themselves more when things go wrong, and don't give themselves enough credit for things that are going right. You can have a higher stress level than the other two outlooks and a higher rate of depression. These can lead to poorer health in the caregiver.

What may help: Exercising. Interestingly, it has been proven that exercise helps pessimists to regulate stress hormones.

Seeking out the companionship of others. This has the same effects of exercise, and it is not betrayal to seek out healthy, empathetic individuals whom you can talk to. Be kinder to yourself. Avoid "knee-jerk" self blame. You are good!!!!!

If you're an Optimist: Optimists expect good things, rather than bad ones, even in dire situations. They're inspiring to be around and suffer less depression than pessimist caregivers. One catch for optimist caregivers is that they risk treading in denial.

What may help: Plan for contingencies. They plan only for short term. Try not to be superstitious. You can have high expectations and be realistic. Don't force the optimism. Dealing with your feelings truthfully is the healthier road.

If you're a Realist: Realists exist somewhere in the boring-but resilient-happy medium between optimism and pessimism. You do the best you can and then surrender to hope and higher powers. There's an old saying, "The pessimist complains about the wind; the optimist expects it to change; the realist adjusts the sails."

Some days, caregivers are all these rolled into one, and it depends on our family members mood and how much sleep we've had!

But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. Isaiah 40-31
