Christian Faith - A Marathon Not A Sprint

THE BIBLE IS NOT A BOOK. IT'S A LIBRARY. You can find history, fiction, biography, poetry, and reference works. This week we begin to spend some time in the section oddly known as "apocalyptic literature". You will find this kind of writing in both the Old and New Testaments. It has one purpose: to give hope to people who believe in God.

Apocalyptic writing works something like this. Did you ever look back on a really difficult time in your life and find yourself honestly thinking - or even saying out loud - "It really wasn't as bad as we thought." You survived the experience. Maybe you even "grew up" some because of it. You're not pretending it was easy or trying to minimize any of the pain or suffering. But ... you now know something more surely than you did when you were troubled and stressed out - through it all you were never alone. When a writer uses "apocalyptic" images or stories, he or she is trying to capture this kind of common human experience. What we now know "after the fact" can help us move more gracefully through our present challenges. "Apocalyptic" writers even seem to presume things may get worse before they get better, but also that their readers will have a deeper faith in God's deliverance.

First century Christians needed to be hopeful people, but they faced two very difficult challenges. First, they discovered a dead Christian. Early on most of them believe that they would not die before the second coming of Jesus. Now they were dying. This was not suppose to happen. They had to re-orient themselves from a short-term to a long-term faith. Proclaiming a new life in Christ was going to be a marathon not a sprint. They needed to re-train themselves on how to live their faith everyday - for a lifetime.

Secondly, they had to confront the fact that pacifism was at the heart of the historical Jesus' reform of Judaism. Jesus taught non-violence and was convinced that mean people will never be converted to good by someone being meaner than they are.

Paradoxically, living our faith everyday in non-violent ways often seems to bring the worst out of others. Why? Because when we do we threaten any person, group, or institution that uses force to achieve its goals. This is why and when we especially need to know that "God is with us" now and will deliver us from all evil.

DEFEND HUMAN DIGNITY - The catechism of our Church teaches that "the Church's love for the poor...is a part of her constant tradition". Please be as generous as you can in today's collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. CCHD provides funding for groups that create lasting change and uplift the poor in the United States. In the last five years, over 36% of CCHD's grants have gone toward advancing education, supporting economic development, and improving housing in low-income neighborhoods. I encourage your participation in this tradition. CCHD is the most successful anti-poverty program in the United States.

THIS YEAR OF FAITH calls each of us to a personal encounter with Jesus Christ. Do you want a deeper faith? Greater confidence in the Gospel message? Do you need the faith support of others and want to share your faith? If this is what you want, give yourself the gift of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Our Advent Penance Service will take place on Tuesday, December 4th, 7:00pm at Our Lady of the Rosary Parish. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to attend. Even if it has been many years. There's no wrong way to go to confession. The peace you will find is priceless!

Health Advisory

Your commitment to Mass is a sign of the vitality of our parish. However, for the health of our whole community, if you are not feeling well, be attentive to these recommendations:

Don't Come To Church ...

- With a fever—be fever free for 24 hrs.
- When you're not feeling well—achy, tired, sore throat, no energy
- When you're coughing and sneezing a lot with a runny nose or headache

When You Do Come To Church ...

- Use hand sanitizer at church entrances
- With slight symptoms of cold or flu —
  - Don't take communion from the cup
  - Offer the sign of peace with a friendly wave or simple bow

Thank you for your cooperation in taking responsibility for the health of our community. Remember, it's sad to miss Mass when you're sick or taking care of someone who's sick, but not sinful.

DAY OF RECOLLECTION...

Retreats provide the soul with renewed graces, certainly needed in today's world, to keep us faithful and striving for sanctity. This year, treat yourself to a day away from the hustle and bustle and prepare for the God who waits for you. Join Archbishop Robert Carlson and the clergy and parishioners of the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis for an Advent Day of Recollection on Saturday, December 1, 2012.

The day begins at 10:00 a.m., and includes two spiritual conferences led by Archbishop Carlson. Each conference will be followed by exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and an opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The day will end with evening vespers at 4:30 p.m. and the celebration of Holy Mass at 5:00 p.m. All conferences and prayer will be held in the Cathedral Basilica, with lunch provided for all in Boland Hall.

This special gathering is free to all (good will offerings to help offset the cost of lunch will be gratefully accepted). Though a free event, organizers request advance registration to properly prepare worship materials and set up for lunch. To register or for additional information, please contact Laura Voegelie at 314-373-8208.

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory..."

MARK 13:26

Some people think that we should give until it hurts. However, true stewards give until it feels right. Our giving feels right when we know that we can stand before God when He comes in His glory and say to Him, "Lord, I gave all that You asked me to give."

EVERY DAY, IS A DAY OF THANKSGIVING

There is a Gospel song with these words: "Every day, is a day of Thanksgiving. God been so good to me, every day He's blessing me". Since this is the month when most of us begin to reflect more deeply on all the wonderful things God has given each of us, why not take the time to show God how much you really appreciate those daily graces. What better way to "Glorify the Lord" then through Stewardship. You may start the process with your Prayers, then through Participation in a parish ministry and then by sharing your financial Generosity with not only your parish family but with the community. This is what Stewardship is all about!

So, when you and your family are giving 'Thanks' for all the wonderful things that God has given you, please consider what else you can do to make Stewardship a part of your 'everyday' life. Remember, 'everyday is truly a day of Thanksgiving'.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

This might be a good time to stock our spiritual cupboard along with our kitchen cupboard in preparation for our celebration of Thanksgiving. Before there was a Thanksgiving Day, even before there were Pilgrims, the Roman Catholic Church celebrated Ember Days ("change-of-season days") as periods of thanksgiving for seasonal harvests. This means it is a customary Catholic way to give thanks to God through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. In the 1969 reformed calendar it was left up to the national conferences of bishops to set dates for Ember Days. (The ones on the old calendar fit a Mediterranean climate, and on the new calendar it was imagined that each nation knew best when to schedule such seasonally oriented days.) The United States bishops have not yet resurrected Ember Days, Rogations Days, and other national days of prayer. However, tucked within Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers (a book published by the U. S. bishops) is a chapter on Ember Days that proposes, among others, the three days before Thanksgiving as days of prayer, charity, and fasting. Why wait for an official proclamation? Why not undertake to observe those three days in that way in your parish, or even in your family? What could be more natural at this time of year?

CRACKING THE STRESS CODE

When did you last notice how tight your shoulders are? Has there been an edginess in your voice? Can you recall the last time you had a good laugh...or a nap?

You often don't realize how stressed you are until something either gives way or breaks down. But paying attention to how you process gives way or breaks down. But paying attention to how you process and store stress—your personal stress code—can help you manage it better.

HERE'S HOW TO CRACK THE CODE:

BE HONEST. Ask yourself whether you're experiencing any of these common signs of suppressed stress:

- Cravings for snacks and comfort food
- Fatigue and forgetfulness
- Inability to relax or enjoy entertainment
- Weight loss, forgetting to eat
- Passive withdrawal, isolating yourself with TV.
- Minor injuries caused by clumsiness

GET A SECOND OPINION.

As a friend how they've observed the way you act under pressure. And be willing to hear what they are telling you.

LISTEN TO YOUR BODY. Lower back pain; trick knee; tennis elbow; or recurring ear-,tooth-or headaches may be old wounds reasserting themselves as tension rises. What are your stress "fractures"?

Whenever any of these signs surface, step back, ask yourself what's really important and try to relax. Gradually, as you pay attention to your individual responses, you'll learn how to short-circuit those symptoms and keep stress-related illness at bay.

A wonderful way to curtail or cope with stress, is to sit for at least 5 minutes everyday, with no TV, Computer, IPAD ,iphone, etc....and just be with God ...listen with your heart that to all that God is trying to tell you.

As we enter the season of Advent, please try to spend that extra quiet time in prayer. Christmas will be such a wonderful blessing is you do.

Joyful Waiting,

S. Rose, SSND

For the past 2 years, Dan Byrns has graciously picked up and brought to church several members of our parish community. Without his help, these parishioners Would not be able to attend Sunday Mass. We are in need of someone who would be willing to drive our church van on Sunday. Perhaps there would be more than one person willing to do this and the ministry could be shared. Please give this opportunity some thought. It is such a wonderful chance to reach out to those in our community who are in need in order to stay connected to the parish. Please call S.Rose at 868-2310 for more details.

SAINTS IN 8TH GRADE

Thanks to the PTO and Mr. Budd, the new promethean board was installed just in time for the 8th graders to present their saint powerpoints. Those being confirmed researched about the saint whose name they are taking when they received the sacrament this past Sunday. The rest of the class chose a saint who means something to them for many different reasons.

Why I Chose Her..

I chose St. Margaret because though she was part of a royal family, she did not let that get in her way from doing God's will.

I also chose her because she showed that you could live a life for God by showing love for others in your everyday actions. Saint Margaret is an excellent example on how to live a life pleasing to God.

GIVING TREE

The Giving Trees provide an opportunity to share our blessings with families served by St. Vincent de Paul and Room at the Inn. The need is truly greater than ever this year. People are struggling to provide the simple necessities of life. There are ornaments for toys, gift cards and other needed items.

Christmas is a special time of hope and joy for children. Your toy gifts may be the only toys the children receive and are greatly appreciated by our families.

Choose sturdy toys that don't have small pieces that are easily lost or broken. Toys for children ages three and under should not present a choking hazard. Clothing is welcome, but not as an ornament gift. A clothing table is available when parents pick up the gifts.

The ornaments must be attached to the unwrapped gifts. Please put checks, cash and gift cards in sealed envelopes marked "Giving Tree" and place them in the collection basket or bring them to the parish office. All gifts must be returned by the weekend of December 1-2. Thank you for your generosity and have a blessed holiday season.

November is National Black Catholic History month. All Catholic history is Important and should be celebrated throughout the year. Let's celebrate the diversity of all God's children, not only during November but every day. Here is a Black Catholic History fact with a Missouri connection. Father Augustus Tolton (1854-1897). He was born into slavery in Missouri. Ordained in Rome in 1886, Tolton was the first recognized Black American priest. Pastor of St. Monica in Chicago, Tolton became the spiritual leader of the 19th century National Black Catholic Congress movement.
