Celebrating the Season of Advent

The Landscape of Salvation

WHEN IT COMES TO PERSONAL WEAKNESS or corporate failure our human tendency is to live in denial or with the assumption that it's someone else's responsibility. "Straightening" things out can be hard work and often takes time and energy that we would rather spend doing other things with other people. The two great saints of Advent - John the Baptist and Mary, Mother of Jesus - remind us that we are all called to move in the direction of "right relationships" with God and one another. They show us that staying focused on how the Word of God dwells among us and forms us will always lead us someplace good - to personal happiness and to joyful hope as a community.

We've all heard or used expressions such as: "set the record straight", "get this straight", or "look me straight in the eye". Each phrase essentially has something to do with being direct, correct, truthful, upright or emphatic. Backed up by the promise of God's faithful and generous love, John clearly reminds us of the importance of dealing with "unevenness" in our lives. Individually and together we must address our moodiness, dishonesty, haughtiness, self-deception, and vulgarities. John's repentance challenges us to remember our human dignity. We are created in the image and likeness of God. All our behaviors, all our relationships - with God, self, and others - can easily reflect (or not) the much desired presence and power of God in our world. Our genuine commitment to building "right relationships" enables us to "see the salvation of God", to recreate the "landscape" of salvation.

*"To suffer with the other and for others, to suffer out of love and in order to become a person who truly loves
- these are fundamental elements of humanity.*

*In all human suffering we are joined by one who experiences and carries that suffering with us; hence 'con-solatio' is present in all suffering, the consolation of God's compassionate love
- and so the star of hope rises."*

Pope Benedict XVI, Saving Hope

THROUGH YOUR GENEROSITY - and that of many others across the Archdiocese - several years ago we conducted a very successful capital campaign for the needs of Kenrick-Glennon Seminary. This campaign addressed the significant needs of repairing and updating the seminary building's infrastructure; expanding the administrative, academic, and recreational facilities; making the campus more accessible and secure; reducing on-going operational expenses; and building an endowment to insure continued resources for future generations. All this work is now nearing completion.

Archbishop Carlson has asked me to express his gratitude to you for your pledged support of this campaign, for your continuing prayers for our seminarians and priests, and for your commitment to the work of the Church in St. Louis. His message and a glimpse of all these improvements may also be found online at: www.kenrick.edu/faith-for-the-future. An open house is being planned at the seminary early next year on March 2nd and March 16th to which everyone will be invited.

Currently there are 108 students enrolled in our 8 year seminary program which can now accommodate up to 141 students. Next weekend one of the seminarians will be with us to briefly talk more about all this and to personally express the gratitude of the seminary community for our support.

Health Advisory

Your commitment to Mass is a sign of the vitality of our parish. However, for the health of our whole community, if you are not feeling well, be attentive to these recommendations:

Don't Come To Church...

- With a fever—be fever free for 24 hrs.
- When you're not feeling well—achy, tired, sore throat, no energy
- When you're coughing and sneezing a lot with a runny nose or headache

When You Do Come To Church...

- Use hand sanitizer at church entrances
- With slight symptoms of cold or flu —
 - Don't take communion from the cup
 - Offer the sign of peace with a friendly wave or simple bow

Thank you for your cooperation in taking responsibility for the health of our community. Remember, it's sad to miss Mass when you're sick or taking care of someone who's sick, but not sinful.

2012 Catholic Charities Christmas Appeal

"There is no room in the inn..."

To the innkeeper, Mary and Joseph were just another couple in an overcrowded town that showed up too late.

What was about to happen in the nearby stable would change the world forever!

The innkeeper in Bethlehem offered Mary and Joseph what he had, a humble shelter to a family in need.

We never send people away. As you invite the Christ Child into your home this Christmas Season, please help us assist those in need.

The greatest strength of Catholic Charities is our wide network of supporters. Because of you, we can say "Yes! There is a place to stay." Many will come to us at this time of year.

November 30, 2012

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In a decree made public on October 5, 2012 our Holy Father, Pope Benedict XVI, announced that he would grant to the faithful Plenary Indulgence throughout this Year of Faith. The Year of Faith began on October 11, 2012 and will conclude on the Feast of Christ the King, November 24, 2013.

The decree states: "During the Year of Faith Plenary Indulgence for the temporal punishment of sins, imparted by the mercy of God and applicable also to the souls of deceased faithful, may be obtained by all faithful who, truly penitent, take Sacramental Confession and the Eucharist and pray in accordance with the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff."

Here in the Archdiocese of St. Louis I am happy to announce that the attached list includes sites where one may visit and obtain a Plenary Indulgence:

For your further reflection I would ask you to consider the following general remarks on Indulgences from Gift of the Indulgence which summarizes the usual conditions given in the Church's law:

- 1) To gain Indulgences, whether Plenary or Partial, it is necessary that the faithful be in the state of grace at least at the time the Indulgence work is completed.
- 2) A Plenary Indulgence can be gained only once a day. In order to obtain it, the faithful must, in addition to being in the state of grace:
 - a) have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin;
 - b) have sacramentally confessed their sins;
 - c) receive the Holy Eucharist (it is certainly better to receive it while participating in Holy Mass, but for the Indulgence only Holy Communion is required);
 - d) pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff.
- 3) Indulgences can always be applied either to oneself or to the souls of the deceased, but they cannot be applied to other persons living on earth.

The intention of this Year of Faith is for the faithful to grow spiritually in their faith and to seriously recommit themselves to living wholly the life of grace gifted to us through our Lord's passion, death and resurrection.

I encourage all the faithful not to let this opportunity be in vain to experience anew the boundless love of God. I also, encourage all parishes to assist their parishioners throughout the course of this coming Year of Faith by offering opportunities for the Eucharist, Sacrament of Penance, missions, workshops on the documents of Vatican II and the Catechism, and pilgrimages to the above designated sites to name just a few.

Should you have any questions I ask you to contact the Office of Sacred Worship at either: 314-792-7230 or worship@archstl.org.

Be assured of my prayers for you and your loved ones in this Year of Faith.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Robert J. Carlson
Archbishop of St. Louis

Living to be 100+ Years

How many of you have thought about living to the age of 100? How many ever thought you would get to the age you are now? Yes, many experts say that genes play a big part in how long a person lives, especially when that person is approaching 90 years old. But, now days, many factors have a part to play in how old a person can live to be.

I found an article where people who have lived to 100+ years have shared healthy tips that they believe assisted in them getting to 100+ years. I wish to share these healthy tips with you.

- Get fresh air everyday
- Have the mind set that "what will be, will be"
- Find someone you looked up to and remember them during the hard times
- Love each other and forgive
- Decide to be content and think positive
- Learn from your challenges
- Exercise as much as possible
- Eat a careful diet
- Have a good doctor
- Avoid smoking
- Eat the "good things", but in moderation
- Volunteer and serve as long as you are able
- Pray everyday
- Have no regrets

Whatever your age, we should all consider these health tips. To me, they appear to be a great grounding for life in general. This Advent season, let us all ask God for the wisdom of these experienced individuals.

*In God's Glory,
Buffy Modde, Parish Nurse @ HNOJ*

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Look around most Catholic churches, and you will discover an image of John the Baptist, often in the old baptistery, or in a window near where the font is or was located. He has two feast days in the calendar: one commemorating his birth, and the other his death. There are only three nativities in our calendar: for Jesus, for Mary, and for the Baptist. John's birthday is reckoned according to the schedule given in Luke's Gospel of the angel's announcement to Mary. The angel tells her that her cousin Elizabeth is in the sixth month of pregnancy, and so Mary hastens to help her. Reckoning Christmas as December 25, we count backwards nine months to March 25 for the Feast of the Annunciation. Then we count forward three months to June 24 for John the Baptist's birth. Halfway to Christmas, his nativity gives ample reason for rejoicing in the summer, and his symbols of fire and water are used playfully in bonfires and dives into the sea. Even at the polar opposite of Christmas in the calendar, the energy of Christ's birth in the Incarnation provides cause for rejoicing.

Winter Outreach is an organization that provides shelter to homeless men and women on evenings where the temperature drops to 20 degrees or less. Outreach teams search areas that homeless individuals are known to frequent and offer blankets, coffee and snacks and offer to shuttle them to shelters.

The shelter sites are a network of churches and other organizations that provide a warm hospitable environment including a warm meal and a cot with blankets. They rise in the morning at 6 or 7 am and given a bus ticket for transportation to the location of their choosing. I have personally tried to find shelter for folks at risk and there are folks who have died as result of exposure to the elements. I know you will agree that even one is too much, No matter what the circumstances or reasons no one should have to end their days alone and freezing on the streets, The Outreach Team and shelters are in need of stocking caps, warm gloves, socks and blankets primarily large and extra large in size. If you have any items you would like to donate there are receptacles at each of the entrances to church where you can drop these items. Monetary donations are most welcome for purchasing bus tickets. This effort was started to save lives of those vulnerable to exposure from extreme temperatures in winter weather and operate from December 1st through February 28th. If you have an interest in volunteering time or have any questions please contact Bill Krenn at 314-574-8946. An annual event is held commemorating those who have died due to exposure. It is held on December 23rd at 4 pm at Centenary Church at 16th and Olive in downtown Saint Louis, It is an experience that you cannot forget. There are typically 15-20 people remembered in this event that we knew or could count. There are more.
