A Pledge to Parish Life

My parish

is composed of people like me.

I help make it what it is.

It will be friendly, if I am. Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them. It will do great work, if I work.

It will make generous gifts to causes, if I am a generous giver. It will bring other people into its community, if I invite and bring them.

It will be a parish of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, and a parish with a noble spirit, if I who make it what it is, am filled with these same things.

Therefore, with the help of God, I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be.

Parish Celebration and Formation

Becoming Catholic

Our parish has a year-round, ongoing process to assist adults in becoming Catholic. We also have a special program for older unbaptized children. Call us at anytime. Deacon George will provide all the information you need.

Getting Married

Preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage begins at least 6 months before a wedding. A wedding date cannot be scheduled until the couple has begun preparation for this sacrament.

Anointing of the Sick

This sacrament is for those having surgery, the seriously or chronically ill, and those near death. Call for anointing at home or church before entering the hospital. Celebrations at church take place -

Every 1st Saturday
After the Evening Mass

Every 3rd Sunday

2013 PARISH MISSION

Saturday, February 23rd
 through Thursday, February 28th

This very special time of preaching, prayer, and spiritual renewal will be led by Fr. Pete Schavitz, a Redemptorist priest.

ALL PARISH LEADERS AND ORGANIZATION should add this event to their calendars, avoid scheduling other activities during this week, and do all they can to encourage the attendance and participation of their members in the most important event in the faith life of our community.

We Are Hungry For "The Word"

THERE IS AN EVIDENT JOY on the face of a child receiving loving attention. The same joy anyone of us may feel when we are acknowledged as loved, valued, and good! However, there is a tendency in all of us - in society - to speak and hear less-than-positive words about each other. We hunger for the joy of hearing good words. Elizabeth today recognizes Mary's need to hear good words, her need to know that her life was headed in a right and good direction. Luke captures in words her important prophetic role in the life of Mary and for every community of believers: "Blessed is she who trusted that the Lord's words to her would be fulfilled!"

Mysteriously the questions "Will you marry me?" and "Do you love me?" are at once frightening and fulfilling. And yet, when carefully asked, the hoped for response reveals the evident joy of a promising future. Every "Yes" that continues to trust in the love of the one asking the questions will be fulfilled no matter the difficulty or challenge.

*"Love for others, and in the first place love for the poor, in whom the Church sees Christ himself,
 is made concrete in the promotion of justice."*

*Justice will never be fully attained unless people see in the poor person, who is asking for help in order to survive, not an annoyance or a burden,
 but an opportunity for showing kindness and a chance for greater enrichment."*

Blessed Pope John Paul II

This Christmas let your joy be evident! All the ways - great and small - that we've trusted God this year are the evidence of our faith that we need to celebrate now. Many others need to see our joy, to experience the sacrament of the Word of God present in our ordinary daily words and actions.

Health Advisory

Your commitment to Mass is a sign of the vitality of our parish. However, for the health of our whole community, if you are not feeling well, be attentive to these recommendations:

Don't Come To Church ...

- With a fever—be fever free for 24 hrs.
- When you're not feeling well— achy, tired, sore throat, no energy
- When you're coughing and sneezing a lot with a runny nose or headache

When You Do Come To Church ...

- Use hand sanitizer at church entrances
- With slight symptoms of cold or flu —
  - Don't take communion from the cup
  - Offer the sign of peace with a friendly wave or simple bow

Thank you for your cooperation in taking responsibility for the health of our community. Remember, it's sad to miss Mass when you're sick or taking care of someone who's sick, but not sinful.

A Symbol of Life and Love: The Christmas Wreath

Are you still having trouble deciding what to get that one person on your shopping list that has everything? Or maybe you want to give something really special to that person you know who doesn't have much family around, or doesn't have many friends.

How about a wreath? Hand crafted or store bought, either one will do. The Christmas wreath hung on the front door, or the house, or even the porch, is the first welcome that guests receive as they approach your front door. But the wreath is so much more than just an announcement of joy and goodwill.

The circular shape of a wreath is a symbol of eternal life. The red ribbon on a wreath reminds us of Christ's sacrifice. If you are creating your own Christmas wreath, add fruit as a symbol of life, stars on a wreath will remind people of that journey taken long ago to Bethlehem and how the star appeared high in the sky as a guide for the shepherds and the kings.

A wreath can be decorated many different ways, with many different things. Let us always remember that we are part of God's eternal family whenever we see a wreath. The good cheer and hospitality of those that display a wreath is not limited to just a season, or even to our time on Earth. We are rejoicing because we know we are meant to be together always.

Have a Blessed Christmas,

The Parish Office will be closed on Tuesday, Christmas Day and also on Wednesday, December 26th.

IMPORTANT HOSPITAL NEWS

Hospitals, because they are going paperless, are no longer listing the parishes of patients. So, PLEASE, be sure to let us know if you are a friend, relative, neighbor, etc. are being admitted to a hospital. We want to support you in your illness. Just call the Parish Office and give us your information.

Rest in Peace

In your charity please pray for the repose of Lisa Vaughn and all the souls who have died this week. We pray that they may now enjoy the great blessings of eternal life and that their family and friends may find peace in the promises of Christ. Amen

"You, Bethlehem-Ephrathah, too small to be among the clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to be ruler in Israel." (MICAH 5:1)

We may think that the gifts we have to offer may be too small or too inconsequential to give to God. Today we are reminded that God brought forth His greatest gifts to mankind, His own Son, through the humble town of Bethlehem. He can also accomplish great things through us if we generously offer our gifts to Him.

Men's Council Annual Communion Breakfast is Jan. 6, 2013, 8:00am Mass with fellowship and breakfast in the Community Center immediately after. $15.00 per person. Tables of 8 may be reserved. ATTENTION

I will need any bulletin articles for the December 30th bulletin by Wednesday, December 20th. I must transmit that bulletin on Thursday.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In ancient pagan Rome, these days in mid-December were a time for general slacking off at work and far too much rejoicing. The period of leisure after the harvest and a whole cluster of pagan festivals were a force for the church to reckon with. The Saturnalia, breaking out on December 17, was a time of high living and loose morals. Christians were advised by their bishops to drop out of the mayhem and do some serious fasting. A famous church council at Saragossa in Spain made a season of fasting mandatory from December 17 to December 23, exactly coinciding with the Saturnalia. The bishops at that time were perhaps less concerned with preparing for Christmas than with resisting the kind of loose living going on.

Modern times have restored a bit of the Saturnalia spirit to our culture, so that a general period of partying with a vague connection to religion is now upon us. How does a Christian keep balance? The practice of charity by remembering the poor in our gift-giving, of hospitality in finding a place at our holiday tables for the poor and lonely, and of daily prayer in the home and at church are great helps. Although Advent is not a penitential season like Lent, it is a time for making room in our lives for what matters most.

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS

ARCHBISHOP OF ST. LOUIS

Christmas 2012

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Rejoice! The weeks of Advent waiting are over, and Christ is born!

Especially during this Year of Faith, we rejoice in our Savior's birth—remembering the great gift of faith He has given us through the mystery of His incarnation and the saving power of His death and resurrection.

For many years, the people of our Archdiocese have been asked to make a special gift on Christmas Day to support our seminarians at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary. The men of our seminary, who have responded to Christ's call to follow Him, are truly a gift to the Church and to our Archdiocese. It is these men who will bring the faith given to us by Christ 2000 years ago to future generations here in the Archdiocese of St. Louis.

During this Year of Faith, I ask you, once again, to pray for vocations and for all our priests and seminarians. I also ask you to be generous in your donation to the Christmas Day collection which helps pay the day-to-day expenses and maintenance of our Seminary.

Please be assured of my prayers for you during this most blessed season of Christmas. May the Lord of life come into your hearts and homes in a special way during this holy time of year. Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Robert J. Carlson
Archbishop of St. Louis

How about a gift filled with the romance and excitement you remember from your dating times! Apply for a Marriage Encounter weekend in 2013 on either February 1-3 or April 19-21. For more information, call 314-469-7317 or go to: www.stl-wwme.org and have your Christmas present confirmed early.

We will be decorating our church today, December 23rd, immediately after the 10:30am Mass. All are welcome to come and help. Any time that you can share with us that day will be greatly appreciated. There will be tasks for all—you can choose your favorite. If you can, please bring something for all to share—cookies, brownies, or a light snack. We'll provide the Christmas music and something to drink. We look forward to seeing you!
