Celebrating the Role of Our Parish in the Community

Faith Making A Difference

THE "WEDDING AT CANA" GOSPEL STORY is quite familiar to most Christians. A story many can tell by heart! And I must confess that I have my own helpful and comfortable interpretations of Jesus' first miracle (changing water into wine) according to John the Evangelist. Again this week, however, I was reminded of things I've forgotten or never knew. In preparing for this weekend's homily I re-discovered a warning from one of my teachers not to make too much of Mary's participation in this miracle.

She seems to misunderstand her son's ministry, believing his special powers are to be used for the benefit of his family. John's Jesus tells her, "My hour has not yet come." For John, Jesus' "hour" - his dying and rising - is at the heart of his ministry, the theme running through every scene and story he writes. He's not on Earth to provide advantages for family members.

After the Cana story the character of Mary does not reappear until the crucifixion of Jesus. Over the years experiencing a conversion, Mary is now a model of faith, an example for all Christians. She changes from looking at Jesus as someone who can provide us with what we want, to someone who helps us experience the dying and rising of Jesus in our own lives.

In each of us and in our communities can be found the power and the joy of salvation. Last year the priests and deacons of our Deanery began talking about the issues of "diversity" and "inclusion" in North County.

"Are you better off with your faith in the risen Jesus than you were without that faith?"

Christian faith affirms the goodness of all people and that a community thrives when there is respect for the dignity of each person. As pastoral leaders I believe that we are building a consensus that improving diversity awareness and promoting inclusiveness in our neighborhoods is crucial to encouraging harmony among neighbors and to providing a welcoming and productive environment within which residents can learn, recreate, and grow.

The following questions invite us all to explore our need for conversion. Every growing thing changes. I know that as we pray with these questions and talk about them together we will experience even more the "dying and rising" of Christ. For a while now our "hour" has come.

- Describe (be specific) the changes in your neighborhood demographics over the past 3 years.
- What reasons do new families share for wanting to live in your neighborhood? Do these reasons differ among your neighbors?
- What various ways do you have for welcoming new neighbors? How do you decide what to do?
- How does your neighborhood engage new residents in the life of your neighborhood?
- How has your neighborhood benefited from having a greater diversity among residents?
- How do you help your family and friends strengthen their awareness and knowledge of the diversity in your neighborhood?
- What challenges are you experiencing with your neighbors and a more diverse neighborhood?
- What help or support do you need as a parish member undergoing changes in your neighborhood?
- How can your neighborhood attract new residents?
- How can neighborhoods help each other benefit from the changes taking place in our community?

Health Advisory

Your commitment to Mass is a sign of the vitality of our parish. However, for the health of our whole community, if you are not feeling well, be attentive to these recommendations:

Don't Come To Church...

- With a fever—be fever free for 24 hrs.
- When you're not feeling well—achy, tired, sore throat, no energy
- When you're coughing and sneezing a lot with a runny nose or headache

When You Do Come To Church...

- Use hand sanitizer at church entrances
- With slight symptoms of cold or flu —
 - Don't take communion from the cup
 - Offer the sign of peace with a friendly wave or simple bow

Thank you for your cooperation in taking responsibility for the health of our community. Remember, it's sad to miss Mass when you're sick or taking care of someone who's sick, but not sinful.

The Path

I write this week as a mother, not as a nurse. But, my nurturing and caring characteristics are still present because I want to reach out and help any and all who need help. As always, please share with family, friends and neighbors.

As my daughters continue their journey into their teenage years, my greatest desire is that their faith in the catholic religion remain as strong as it was on the day they were baptized/ I believe example is the greatest teaching implement, whether the example is good or bad. My duty as a parent is to guide them down the right path and accept whatever detour they may take when it is time for them to be on their own. All parents must decide when that time is, but as we've all experienced, sometimes it is too soon and sometimes it is not soon enough.

There are many important lessons learned in our Catholic faith, and at different times in our lives, some are more important than others. For my teenage daughters, two of the most important lessons I want them to always remember, especially now, as they approach high school age, is: Understanding the Greatness of God's Love and Obedience to the Supreme Being. These will help them to remain focused on the path they are on.

They will swerve and hit the curb at times, they may even end up in the ditch. But being guided back to these two important lessons will get them back on the path. We must nurture and guide our children, besides God's love there is no other greater love than that of parents. But as parents, if we don't tell our children of God's great love, they will never know it.

Peace and happiness,
Buffy Modde, Parish Nurse @ HNJ

DID YOU KNOW?

Mass is held every Tuesday 10am at the Missouri V.A. Nursing Home chapel. It is located on 10600 Lewis & Clark (the first light south of Christian Hospital, on Hwy 367). As we approach Veteran's Day, join us weekly as we celebrate Mass with those who know what it means to serve.

A MASS FOR HEALING will be celebrated at Blessed Teresa of Calcutta parish church, on Wednesday, January 30th at 7:00 PM. During the celebration, Fr. Rosy and a number of other prayer teams will pray over anyone who seeks prayer for healing. While on earth, Jesus taught, healed and delivered. He commissioned all the baptized to do the same. Please come with your own needs, to pray for someone else, or as intercessor for those who are being prayed with. For more information, phone Ralph Vossmeier at 314-867-7789

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

"To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." 1 CORINTHIANS 12:7

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God's plan, helping to do His work here on earth? Remember that if you don't do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it.

I am a member of Sacred Heart Parish in Florissant, MO. I also belong to Singles Again Inc. which is an organization that helps people through the pain of a separation, divorce, or the death of a spouse. We meet the last Thursday of the month at St. Cletus Parish in St. Charles, MO. We will be hosting a diocese "Steps to Wholeness" program beginning Friday, February 1st 2013 for 7 weeks. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me, Martha Johnson at 314-680-5505.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The cause of church unity is commended to Christians for prayer and action every year around this time. This week is not so much to focus on the many divisions within the Christian family, but on bonds of faith and mission. Even though Christians have always shown an inclination to fracture, spin off, and mutate into new expressions, recent history shows some new points of convergence and agreement. Catholics are more firmly rooted in the word of God, for example, and many Protestants are more likely to celebrate Communion than in years past. Some denominations are merging and pooling resources, and people from various traditions are collaborating on projects.

The call of this week is to be mindful of the diversity of our traditions and customs while treasuring what we hold in common. The old advice to "lighten up" is good medicine, because sometimes our differences are delightful and amusing. If someone says, "Let us pray," a Catholic might close the eyes, bow the head and fold hands; a Protestant reach out and clasp hands with the person in the next chair; and someone belonging to an Orthodox tradition might stand up with eyes wide open. Each has taken a different path, but the goal is always the same. This is a week not for focusing on the well-worn paths of divergence, but for mutual delight in a common goal.
