A Pledge to Parish Life

My parish

is composed of people like me.

I help make it what it is.

It will be friendly, if I am.

if I help fill them.

It will do great work,

if I work.

It will make generous gifts to causes,

if I am a generous giver.

It will bring other people

into its community,

if I invite and bring them.

It will be a parish

of loyalty and love,

of fearlessness and faith,

and a parish

if I who make it what it is,

am filled with

these same things.

Therefore,

with the help of God,

I shall dedicate myself

to the task

of being all the things

that I want

my parish to be.

Celebrating Our Call to Live the Truth in Love

Characters Welcome! - Sinners and Saints Alike

THERE IS A COMMON HUMAN TENDENCY - more or less in all of us - to put someone "in the middle", that is, to be quick to condemn the actions of others. We know how easy it is to focus on the weaknesses and failures of others, while at the same time failing to see our own shortcomings. Truth be told, such rough edges and unfinished surfaces - our own as well as those of someone else - are real opportunities for growing in our relationship with God and others.

Concerning today's Gospel story of the adulterous woman ask yourself the question, Whose the only one who doesn't walk away from Jesus? The scribes and Pharisees chose not to remain. They couldn't let go of their ill will towards Jesus. Only the woman - a real character of our Gospel story - chooses not to leave.

*"Remember not the events of the past, the things
of long ago consider not;
See, I am doing something new!
In the desert I make a way,
in the wasteland, rivers."*

Book of the Prophet Isaiah 43:18-20

Jesus does not condemn her for her sinfulness but calls her to continue her journey of remaining with him and choosing life. So often in Gospel stories Jesus helped all sorts of "characters" to recognize their own sinfulness. He does the same with use today, often with the help of others.

At times the unacceptable behavior of others might speak to us of our own sinfulness. Or it might be the truthfulness of what someone says to us in anger that finally hits home about how we must change. As painful as these admissions may well be, they are exactly what can strengthen us in our choice not to walk away from Jesus, our decision to remain in his love.

*"God has gathered together as one all those who believe in Jesus and look on him as the author of salvation
and the source of unity and peace."*

*God has established them as the Church so that for each and all,
the Church may be the visible sign of that saving unity."*

*Lumen Gentium, Light of the Nations
Constitution on the Church, 2nd Vatican Council*

FOR THE PAST FEW WEEKS - AND A FEW TO COME - our Catholic Church has and will be getting a lot of media attention that we need to take the fullest advantage of now. This past week we prayed for the election of a new Pope using readings from St. Paul who has given us a most powerful image for the Church - the "Body of Christ". It made me think that our Church will have the best Pope possible, if each and everyone of us are the best Catholic Christians we can be. We are one Body, many members. We have different roles we must play, and no member can say to another you are not needed!

That day we heard St. Paul (Ephesians 4:15) say that we are called to "live the truth in love" and to "grow into Christ". Today's Gospel pictures for us Jesus "living the truth in love" - accepting the woman as she is, walking step by step with her as she grows to love as she has been loved. As we prayed for a new Pope, Jesus (John 15:13) also taught that, "There is no greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." In the love of Christ she is no longer a slave to her sin, but a friend in Christ. Our Pope needs to have great love and will have it - if each of us strives to be great in love ourselves.

Prayer for the Church

(In anticipation of the Vacancy of the See of St. Peter)

O Lord Jesus Christ, Supreme Pastor of Your Church, we thank you for the ministry of Pope Benedict XVI and the selfless care with which he has led us as Successor of Peter, and Your Vicar on earth.

Good Shepherd, who founded Your Church on the rock of Peter's faith and have never left Your flock untended, look with love upon us now, and sustain Your Church in faith, hope, and charity.

Grant, Lord Jesus, in Your boundless love for us, a new Pope for Your Church who will please You by his holiness and lead us faithfully to You, who are the same yesterday, today, and forever.

Amen.

Knights of Columbus
February, 2013

We will be meeting in church on Saturday morning, March 23rd, at 8:30 to prepare our church for Palm Sunday. Everyone is welcome to come and help us with banners and the palm arrangements.

We will also be gathering at 8:30 on the mornings of Holy Thursday, March 28th; Good Friday, March 29th; and Holy Saturday, March 30th. Please join us in preparing for the Triduum. Anytime that you can share with us on these days (especially Saturday) is most appreciated! We will be setting up the altar of repose on Holy Thursday and making Good Friday preparations Friday morning. Saturday we will be decorating for Easter. We look forward to seeing you!

Housing Resource Fair

March 27, 2013

Bellefontaine Neighbors will be holding its 2nd Annual Housing Resource Fair, March 27th 2013 from 4:30 to 7:30 at the Bellefontaine Recreation Center at 9641 Bellefontaine Rd. It is free and open to all North County residents. There will be a wealth of resources available covering all aspects of home ownership.

If you have questions and need answers, don't miss this event. Consider:

- ✧ Is it better to rent or buy?
- ✧ Behind on your mortgage. Can I refinance or restructure my mortgage?
- ✧ What are the advantages/disadvantages of reverse mortgages?
- ✧ Where can I get assistance with home repairs or utility payments?
- ✧ What alternatives are there to foreclosure?
- ✧ Credit problems? How can I improve my score?

North County is a wonderful place to live with great, affordable housing stock. With many positive things on the horizon, knowledgeable, stable homeowners add to its success. The Riverview Gardens School District has made many accomplishments to enhance and place the district on course for re-accreditation. Come out and learn of its progress and benefit from a host of other resources provided in an effort to strengthen N. County and empower our residents.

Fifth Sunday of Lent

"For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ..." (Philippians 3:8)

Learning to detach ourselves from our material possessions and seeing them as "rubbish" is an important step in growing closer to Jesus Christ. Then we are able to give more freely and joyfully.

This time of year, I always consider two certainties in life, my obligation to pay taxes and the joyful and perennial opportunity to participate in celebrations of Saint Patrick's Day. Please consider joyfully donating a vehicle to Vinnie's Autos (and joyfully receiving a tax deduction); Vinnie's Autos is a car donation and transfer program of the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul. If you are interested in making a donation, please call the program coordinator, Greg Marino, at 314-881-6005.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Next weekend, many churches provide palms to be carried in the opening moments of the liturgy, as we gratefully recall Jesus' entry into the holy city of Jerusalem. The children who greeted him on that day used what was both handy and traditional, since palms were carried to inaugurate the joyful harvest feast of Succoth. To this day, faithful Jews are directed to take a beautiful palm branch, green and straight as possible, called a lulav, and bind it with three myrtle branches fifteen inches long, and two longer willow branches. At the end of the temple service, everyone carries the lulav, circling the sanctuary in a dance called the Hoshanot, singing hymns of joy.

In other climates, Jews and Christians alike have had to make accommodations over the years. In Italy, everyone carries olive branches today, often brought from their own garden. In England, forsythia branches are preferred, a relative of the olive, sign of peace. Germans prefer pussywillows, and others look for flowering spring branches. In our part of the world, what do you think would be the best choice to express joy and welcome, and to remind us of the joy of Christ's victory even as we prepare to commemorate his passion?

ST. PATRICK'S CENTER MOSTACIOLLI
CASSEROLES

We are now ready for Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday. We are hoping that there will be plenty of Mostaciolli Casseroles to feed the people down at St. Patrick's Center. Be sure to bring your casseroles to us between the hours of 7:00 and 9:30am on Thursday, March 21st so that we can get them to St. Patrick's Center in time for lunch. We will be at the South portal of church with our Shamrock flag flying to collect your casseroles.

Thank you,
Matt & Connie Borzymowski

COLORECTAL CANCER AWARENESS

Over the past few decades, more people have been surviving colon cancer and fewer people have been dying from it. This is due to improvements in colon cancer screening and treatment. Screening finds polyps, growths that can turn into cancer, and removes them. This helps the doctors detect the disease earlier and is likely easier to treat.

There are 5 common myths that keep people from getting screened for colon cancer, knowing these are just myths will help you lower your chances of developing colon cancer.

- Colorectal cancer is a man's disease.
- Colorectal cancer cannot be prevented.
- African Americans are not at risk for colorectal cancer.
- Age doesn't matter when it comes to getting colorectal cancer.
- It's better not to get tested for colorectal cancer because it's deadly anyway.

All these are MYTHS, do not let these keep you from receiving early detection of colorectal cancer.

Most people diagnosed with colon cancer are over the age of 50, but some people have risk factors that make them more likely to develop it at an earlier age. Knowing the risk factors and getting screened earlier and having the test more often will aid in detecting the cancer earlier and allow for immediate treatment.

What is a risk factor? A risk factor is anything that affects your chance of getting a disease such as cancer. Different cancers have different risk factors. Remember, risk factors don't tell us everything. Having a risk factor or several risk factors doesn't mean you will get the disease. And some who get the disease had no risk factors.

If there was someone in your family that had colon cancer, tell your doctor. Ask your doctor what you should look for as early signs of colon cancer.

*May the intercessions of St. Patrick be with you always,
Buffy Modde, Parish Nurse @ HNOJ*
