Friendship in Christ

Enjoying each other's company

Striving to bring the best out of each other

Sharing a commitment to a common good outside of ourselves

Over all other virtues put on love,
that is, the bond of perfection.

– Colossians 3:14

A Pledge to Parish Life

My parish

is composed of people like me.

I help make it what it is.

It will be friendly, if I am.
Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.

It will do great work, if I work.

It will make generous gifts to causes, if I am a generous giver.
It will bring other people into its community, if I invite and bring them.

It will be a parish of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, and a parish with a noble spirit, if I who make it what it is, am filled with these same things.

Therefore, with the help of God, I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be.

We Are Called To Be Hopeful People

As we look forward to the new year we do so within the context of the mysteries we are now celebrating. It is our faith that the birth of Jesus—The Sacrament of the love of God for us—symbolizes and celebrates how much God truly wants to be a part of our world and our lives. We believe that Jesus is Good News for the world!

Our faith also teaches us that we the Church—the Body of Christ—are The Sacrament of the love of God for all the world. Everyday the people of the communities we are here to serve—all of them in their own particular ways—are praying for God's love, for God to touch their lives where they need it most. Join me today in thanking God for our parish leaders who enable every parish member to be a part of God's vision and plan for the salvation of the world. I thank God today for your prayers, your financial support, and your willingness to volunteer for the life and welfare of our parish and this mission.

Pastoral Leadership Team & Parish Staff

Fr. Michael Henning, Rose Fox,

Our Leadership Team and Staff develop, oversee, and support parish ministries, pastoral services, and the organizations and activities of our parish by recruiting and training volunteers, by supporting parish leaders, by administering daily operations, and by maintaining our facilities for parish use.

*Hope is not the conviction that something will turn out well, but the certainty that something makes sense
regardless of how it turns out.*

Vaclav Haval, Poet, President, Czech Republic

Our Council is to strengthen our Catholic presence in the communities we serve, to keep our parish vibrant, and to promote human development as a work of evangelization. They assess the pastoral needs of our community and set parish priorities.

Health Advisory

Your commitment to Mass is a sign of the vitality of our parish. However, for the health of our whole community, if you are not feeling well, be attentive to these recommendations:

Don't Come To Church...

- With a fever—be fever free for 24 hrs.
- When you're not feeling well—
 achy, tired, sore throat, no energy
- When you're coughing and sneezing a lot with a runny nose or headache

When You Do Come To Church...

- Use hand sanitizer at church entrances
- With slight symptoms of cold or flu —
  - Don't take communion from the cup
  - Offer the sign of peace with a friendly wave or simple bow

Thank you for your cooperation in taking responsibility for the health of our community. Remember, it's sad to miss Mass when you're sick or taking care of someone who's sick, but not sinful.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We are in the season of the Incarnation, the mystery of God’s love poured out in Christ’s birth. The word derives from the Latin carnis meaning “flesh.” Throughout history, some Christians have distrusted the “flesh,” and stressed a hatred of this world and its pleasures. Perhaps they have not paid enough attention to how “embodied” the sacraments are. One third-century author put it plainly in an image that may alarm diet-conscious Americans, explaining that we wash the body so the soul can be cleansed, that we anoint the body so the soul can be strengthened, and that we eat the body and blood of Christ so that “the soul can fatten on God.”

Catholics “get” that God is revealed in this world. The sacraments use the “stuff” of creation: water and oil; the senses of the body, touch and taste and smell. We use the things of this world rightly. After all, God’s love poured out into human flesh means the world has eternal value. Why else would Jesus describe the kingdom to come as a teeming city or a marriage banquet? Catholics are realists, and nowhere is that more evident than when we gather for a sacrament.

LOVE

For generations, various cultures regarded family life merely as a utilitarian necessity. Sirach introduces honor and respect. For Jews and Christians alike, the value of family goes even further. The family is seen as the indispensable school where love is learned. Paul addresses the Colossians and offers a list of virtues that make for a solid and happy church. These values also make for a happy family at ease with itself and its members: mercy, kindness, humility, meekness, patience, forgiveness. As a capstone, Paul urges love, which brings all of these domestic virtues to perfection.

Paul seems to be on a roll as he lauds the virtues of the church at Colossae. With such heartfelt virtues, it is no wonder Paul bursts into song. Who wouldn’t? It’s clear that the center of the church is love. It is clear that no matter how far from home the members travel, the heart remains and all the members are connected by the gravitational pull of mutual love, a love first learned in family life.

Mass is held every Tuesday 10am at the Missouri V.A. Nursing Home chapel. It is located on 10600 Lewis & Clark (the first light south of Christian Hospital, on Hwy 367). As we approach Veteran’s Day, join us weekly as we celebrate Mass with those who know what it means to serve.

GIVING THE PRESENT OF PRESENCE

God sent a present into the world, the gift of a loving presence named Jesus. In return, the best gift we can give to others is the Gift of Love. Here are a few suggestions: Remember we can be with others in thoughts and prayers.

- Be with someone who needs you.
- Be with a person who gives you hope.
- Be with those who live in terror and fear.
- Be with an older person.
- Be with someone who has helped you to grow.
- Be with someone who is in pain.
- Be with yourself.
- Be with someone who has written to you.
- Be with a child.
- Be with an enemy or someone you dislike.
- Be with someone who has terminal illness.
- Be with the homeless.
- Be with those who suffer from substance abuse.
- Be with hungry children.
- Be with a coworker.
- Be with those whose hope is faint.
- Be with someone in your family.
- Be with men and women in prison.
- Be with someone working for justice.
- Be with those who are abused and neglected.
- Be with your loved ones.

God of love, you were so generous, sending the presence of your Beloved to dwell among us and to tell us who we are. You who dwell within me, remind me often to let go of my busyness and my hurriedness so that I can be with others in a loving way. Convince me that “being” is as important as “doing.” Thank you for your strengthening presence. Thank you for being with me. Amen.

Joyce Rupp.

Peace and Hope and a Blessed New Year,

S. Rose, SSND, RN

IMPORTANT HOSPITAL NEWS

Hospitals, because they are going paperless, are no longer listing the parishes of patients. So, PLEASE, be sure to let us know if you are a friend, relative, neighbor, etc. are being admitted to a hospital. We want to support you in your illness. Just call the Parish Office and give us your information.

Rest in Peace

In your charity please pray for the repose of Greg Murphy, Mary Rademacher, Rose Marie Holschen and all the souls who have died this week. We pray that they may now enjoy the great blessings of eternal life and that their family and friends may find peace in the promises of Christ. Amen

PRAYER CHAIN

If you or someone you know is in need of prayer, please call either Betty Kondracki @ 868-0176 or Pat Edgar @ 868-4143

ATTENTION

Do you know a home-bound parishioner who would like to receive the Eucharist on a weekly basis? If so, please contact Sr. Rose.

Trinity Catholic students win Model of Justice Awards

Trinity Catholic High School juniors Andre Bernaugh and Cayla Thurman have each been named Martin Luther King, Jr. Model of Justice Award winners. Bernaugh was nominated through his parish, Our Lady of Guadalupe, while Thurman (St. Rose Philippine Duchesne) was nominated through Trinity Catholic.

The awards are presented annually to high school students who have demonstrated, through their attitude and work, a commitment to serve humanity in the broader community. These students have made social justice a central part of their life and have committed themselves "to the noble struggle for equal rights."

Both Bernaugh and Thurman will be honored as a part of the 38th Annual Archdiocesan Mass and Commemoration at the Cathedral Basilica on January 19.

NEW YEAR

The object of a new year is not that we should have a new year, but rather that we should have a new soul.

Woman's Place presents

Healthy Relationships

A free workshop for women

Saturday, Jan 11, 2014, 9am to noon at our Affton location
– 8300 Morganford Rd, behind St. Mark church.

This workshop explores the dynamics of a healthy relationship and how we create our own ideas of what a relationship looks like. Open to all women. Pre-registration is required, space is limited. Call 314-645-4848 by Jan 8.

Woman's Place works to end violence against women by providing compassionate crisis intervention, facilitating women's transition to safety and healing, and educating the community.

Now with 2 locations:

8300 Morganford Rd in Affton and

4116 McClay Rd in St. Charles

Made possible by donations, grants and our on-going cell-phone collection.
