Statement from Archbishop Carlson Regarding Recent Sexual Abuse Findings

Last week on August 16th Most Reverend Robert J. Carlson, Archbishop of St. Louis, released the following statement regarding the recent sexual abuse findings

The recent allegations of sexual abuse of children and vulnerable adults by Catholic clergy as revealed by a grand jury investigation in Pennsylvania are extremely disturbing. Priests are called to be spiritual fathers to their people, and bishops are called to be shepherds of their flock, to protect the people in their care. We know that in many cases that has not happened. The trust of the faithful has been violated. We must act on behalf of the victims of this abuse in order to bring to them the love, healing, and light of Christ.

Our own Archdiocese of St. Louis has not escaped the scourge of clergy sexual abuse over the past few decades. Since 2002, the archdiocese has renewed its efforts and made every attempt to protect those who cannot protect themselves and to ensure that the light of Christ is present everywhere—especially where children or vulnerable people are present. I pledge my continued commitment to the protection of children and young people.

Our archdiocesan policy regarding the protection of children is stringent, thorough, and includes multiple points of accountability. All clergy, seminarians, employees, & volunteers whose service in the Church brings them into contact with children must have a regular background check. Since 2002, over 100,000 adults who are employed by or volunteer in our parishes and institutions have participated in the professionally developed program, “Protecting God’s Children.” The program equips those who serve the Church to foster a safe environment for our children and vulnerable adults.

In the fall of 2017, a former member of the FBI conducted a complete review of our child protection and Review Board policies and procedures. Our program was judged to be thorough and comprehensive. Established in 2002, the Archdiocesan Review Board currently consists of a majority of lay members not employed by the archdiocese who review every allegation of clergy sexual abuse and provide me with advice concerning allegations. I have always followed the advice of this board. The board includes lay members with backgrounds in law enforcement, medical ethics, psychology, psychiatry, and a medical doctor whose expertise is in the diagnosis and treatment of juvenile sexual abuse.

*The trust of the faithful has been violated.
We must act on behalf of the victims of this abuse in order to bring to them the love, healing, and light of Christ.*

*The Archdiocesan Review Board currently consists of a majority of lay members not employed by the archdiocese who review every allegation of clergy sexual abuse and provide me (Archbishop Carlson) with advice concerning allegations.
I have always followed the advice of this board.*

Today no clergy against whom a substantiated claim of abuse of a minor has been made have permission to conduct priestly ministry in the Archdiocese of St. Louis. I support and encourage anyone with an allegation to contact law enforcement. The Church relies on the help of God’s grace to remain firm in Her resolve and effective in Her action to protect children and young people.

I will be inviting the priests of the Archdiocese of St. Louis to join me in offering Masses for all victims of sexual abuse. I pray that we may always express the pure love of Christ particularly for children and the most vulnerable in our midst.

Trinity Food Truck Feast Tuesday September 4th

Make plans to attend the Trinity Food Truck Feast from 5:00 – 8:00pm in front of the school. So far the trucks scheduled to attend are Slice of the Hill, Mann Meats, and Sarah’s Cake Stop.

There were many renovations and updates at Trinity over the summer so this would be a good time to see all the changes. Also, there is a home boys soccer game, girls volleyball, and girls softball game that night. So there’s plenty of activity that night as well.

We hope to see you there!

We recently had an adult formation session on the movie Joshua. Deacon George prepared this study for us by getting the movie and by providing us with discussion questions. He did a marvelous job. Here are some of the comments from the people who attended.

Janice: The movie Joshua and the group discussion led me to think about what it would really be like if Jesus came today among us.

Mary: People were drawn to Joshua as people are drawn to Jesus. By his mere presence he gives us comfort and peace and brings out the best in us.

Donna: I very much enjoyed sharing spiritual stories and ideas. I learned something new about myself. Once again, Deacon George, you prepared an excellent study for us.

Tim: deep, profound, personal, loving, life-changing, inspiring

Mike: Joshua was a very inspirational movie. The group sharing helped us to see things in the movie we may not have seen on our own. Well worth our time.

Again, our sincere thanks to deacon George for all his work, his time, and his inspiration.

2018/19 SCHOOL YEAR

Students and their backpacks were blessed at our 10:30 Liturgy last Sunday.
Continue to pray for our children! God please help them to use their gifts to be the best they can be. Bless their parents, also with patience and perseverance so they can support their children and continue to teach them to love God above all else.
