Christian and Muslim Perspectives

Reverence for the Blessed Mother Mary

In the month of September the Catholic Church celebrates two Marian feasts: The Birth of Mary (September 8th) and Our Lady of Sorrows (September 15th). With all Christians and many others throughout the world we honor the gift and the meaning of her life.

Most Christians are unaware of the reverence that Muslims have for Mary. In 24 of the 34 references to Mary (Maryam) in the Qur'an, she is identified as the mother of Jesus. Not other woman is even mentioned by name in the Qur'an. One chapter of the Qur'an (Sura 19) is entitled "Maryam" and narrates events of the Annunciation and Jesus' birth. Also, Muslims call Mary, Sitti Maryam, with 'Sitti' being a term of endearment because of her privilege to be the mother of Jesus.

Mohammad's attitude toward Mary was always reverent and respectful. He spoke of her as a sign for all creation and a model for all believers. As the Qur'an notes (66:12), "she put her trust in the words of her Lord and believed in his Scriptures". The Prophet of Mecca saw Mary as a sign and model because she truly submitted (Islam) to the will of Allah/God. This same virtue of Mary is recorded by Saint Luke: "Mary said: I am the servant of the Lord. Let it be done to me as you say" (1:38).

Another parallel is Mary's special dignity as one favored by God. The Qur'sn (3:42) says: "Allah has chosen you, and made you pure, and exalted you above all women"; the Gospel of Luke (1:28, 42) states: "Hail, full of grace ... blessed are you among women."

The Second Vatican Council advised Catholics on the proper attitude toward their Muslim neighbors.

"Although in the course of the centuries many quarrels and hostilities have arisen between Christians and Muslims, this most sacred Synod urges all to forget the past and to strive sincerely for mutual understanding," the Council said in its document Nostra Aetate on Catholic relations with other religions.

"On behalf of all humanity, let them make common cause of safeguarding and fostering social justice, moral values, peace, and freedom."

Christians and Muslims are not in agreement on every aspect of faith and doctrine, yet, this does not prevent them from nurturing a deep and mutual reverence for Mary as "Our Lady" (Sayidat). Perhaps Mary can be a bridge to closer fellowship, where Muslims and Christians clasp each other's hand in worship of the one, true God.

Blue Mass - September 16

First responders are invited to the 2018 Blue Mass to be celebrated at the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Louis on Sunday, September 16, 2018 at 10:00 a.m., followed by a reception at Boland Hall.

We invite all first responders to wear uniforms, gather ahead of time in front of the Cathedral Basilica and process into the Cathedral at the beginning of the Mass. Special prayers will be offered for our first responders, and they will be recognized during the Mass.

The Blue Mass gets its name from the blue uniforms worn by so many public safety personnel. The Mass dates back to 1934 and is a venerable tradition in many dioceses. It calls forth in us a greater awareness of and gratitude for the lives of those who serve us so faithfully.

Is your child or a student you know
STAYING IN ST. LOUIS TO ATTEND

Annual Assembly of the Missouri Catholic Conference

Pope Francis calls Catholics to go to the peripheries. We invite you to attend the Missouri Catholic Conference's 2018 Annual Assembly on Saturday, October 6, at Helias Catholic High School in Jefferson City to find out how. This event is sponsored by the Missouri bishops and is free to all who attend. The keynote speaker will be Bishop Perry of the Archdiocese of Chicago. Workshops will be offered on a number of issues, including pro-life, immigration law, the death penalty, the opioid epidemic, and a Catholic response to the LGBTQ community. Lunch is provided and the day will end with a Mass concelebrated by the bishops. Please pre-register for the event by going to MOCatholic.org or calling 1-800-456-1679. See you on October 6!
