We Are Salt and Light

What Does It Mean to Form My Conscience?

Catholics have a long tradition of engagement in the public square. Sometimes that engagement requires making difficult moral decisions that impact our own lives and those of others. Our conscience can help guide the decisions we make.

Vatican Council II guides us: “Always summoning [one] to love good and avoid evil, the voice of conscience can when necessary speak to [one’s] heart more specifically: do this, shun that” (Gaudium et Spes 16). However, our conscience doesn’t just come to us when we are born. We must work throughout our lives to form it through prayer, learning, and conversation.

How do I form my conscience?

It takes time to form our consciences so that we can make well-reasoned judgments about particular, real-life situations. The Church teaches that it is important to work continually on conscience formation so we can be prepared to make decisions whenever the opportunity arises. Some specific ideas to form your conscience are:

- ◆ Being open to the truth and what is right is the first step.
- ◆ Study Scripture and the teaching of the Church.
- ◆ Examine the facts and background information about various choices and be discerning in where we gather information.
- ◆ Prayerfully reflect to discern the will of God (Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, no. 18).

Additionally, it is important to consider how our community of faith can help us form good consciences through some of these steps:

- ◆ Seek the prudent advice and good example of trusted leaders and others to support and enlighten our conscience.
- ◆ Learn about the authoritative teaching of the Church.
- ◆ Pray for gifts of the Holy Spirit to help us develop our conscience.
- ◆ Practice a regular examination of conscience to hear God’s voice in your life.

Doing the work of forming our consciences can seem daunting. Fortunately, we have many church teachings that can help us in this important task. Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship is an important resource for U.S. Catholics and helps us prayerfully reflect on how we can apply Church teaching in our civic life. “Conscience is not something that allows us to justify doing whatever we want, nor is it a mere ‘feeling’ about what we should or should not do. Rather, conscience is the voice of God resounding in the human heart, revealing the truth to us and calling us to do what is good while shunning what is evil.”

Here are some questions for further reflection:

- ◆ When has my conscience guided me to “do good and avoid evil”?
- ◆ What are some key resources I can use to form my conscience?
- ◆ Forming conscience is a “lifelong task.” What do I do to regularly form my conscience? What more should I do?

Next Week:

An Examination of Conscience: Loving Our Neighbors in the Public Square

We are called to bring the best of ourselves and our faith to the public square.

I PLEDGE

Civility

*To recognize the human dignity of those with whom I disagree, treat others with respect, and rise above attacks
when directed at me.*

Clarity

*To root my political viewpoints in the Gospel and a well formed conscience, which involves prayer, conversation,
study and listening.*

I will stand up for my convictions and speak out when I witness language that disparages others' dignity, while also listening and seeking to understand others' experiences.

Compassion

To encounter others with a tone and posture which affirms that I honor the dignity of others and invites others to do the same.

*I will presume others' best intentions and listen to their stories with empathy.
I will strive to understand before seeking to be understood.*

Take the time to go on-line today or in the coming weeks to join Catholics and many others in taking this pledge.

May your pledge help to govern our conversations in the coming weeks and months ahead of us.

A Few Important Messages from your St. Vincent de Paul Society!

First, just a reminder that we send acknowledgements for all donations, memorials and tributes at the time they are received, and your monthly blue envelopes total is included on your year-end statement from the parish office. We do not send individual year-end statement for tax purposes.

Second, thanks to your continuing generosity, we were able to fill just short of half of the large St. Vincent de Paul truck last weekend with a variety of winter clothing items. Our Thrift Store will be able to offer these items to our neighbors in need for either very little or no cost, depending on the family's situation. In case you missed the collection, please know that you can always drop your donations of clothing, bedding, and small household items in the St. Vincent de Paul Collection Box on the parking lot behind church. You don't have to take these items to the Thrift Store. In fact, we get 'credits' to use for our neighbors in need for all donations deposited in this collection box. So save yourself a trip, drop your items off in the collection box any time, and know that your donation helps even more that way!

We ALWAYS want to make sure you know how much we appreciate all your donations all year long! Our Conference is so blessed to have the support of such generous benefactors so that we're able to continue helping our neighbors in need on behalf of our parish family.

And finally, just another reminder that, in case your New Year's resolution was to do even more to help our neighbors who are struggling to make ends meet, we are still in need of volunteers to help our Conference members with our food pantry. Opportunities include picking up food from the Food Bank and other locations, helping with preparations on the day before our food pantry (between 8-10 am), and helping on the day of our food pantry (second Saturday of each month). You wouldn't be doing any of these activities by yourself! This is a great way to help us help those in need, especially if you'd prefer to not commit to becoming a member at this time. However, you are always welcome to join us! If you are interested in this opportunity, you can contact any of our Conference officers: Marty Bligh, Mike Petroff, or Bob and Pat Stolte.

God bless you all for your continuing generosity!
