Our search continues for a Facilities Maintenance Coordinator with knowledge and hands-on experience in equipment maintenance and HVAC systems. A full time job responsible for: Prioritizing maintenance needs and project planning; Performing ordinary and preventative maintenance; Managing service contracts; and Overseeing custodial work and volunteers. Position ensures the efficient operation, effective use, and attractiveness of parish facilities as a public sign of our care for parishioners and commitment to the community. Full benefits and competitive compensation.

Since opening our search last fall 13 candidates have expressed their interest in the position. Of 8 applications received 4 candidates were interviewed. We have offered the position to one person, who declined out of loyalty to his current employer. If you are aware of someone who you think may be interested in the position described above, please encourage them to contact our office for a full job description or an application.

come to mass & staying healthy

With the increase in cases of colds and the flu over the past several weeks and the public health emergency of the Coronavirus, some have asked as to how we can protect parishioners when they gather for Mass. We can all help by being more aware of the following information:

- ◆ There is no cause for panic, but extra-precautionary measures should be taken at this time to lessen the spread of colds, flu, and other contagious illnesses;
- ◆ All sacred vessels are sanitized after all Masses (soap and hot water) and you may even want to consider for a time not receiving Holy Communion from the cup;
- ◆ You may also want to limit or modify certain ritual actions during the liturgy such as bowing instead of handshaking or kissing during the Sign of Peace;
- ◆ Remember good hygiene (i.e., hand sanitizer lotion in restrooms, public areas, and sacramental ministry) and proper cough and sneeze etiquette.

outside of mass

- ◆ Be more aware of people who are more at risk (i.e., the elderly living alone, persons with disabilities, children and teens);
- ◆ Check in on family members, neighbors, and friends;
- ◆ Encourage parishioners to remain at home if they are not feeling well or suspect they may have any of the symptoms of a cold or the flu.

Thank you in advance for your work in helping to reduce the spread of the flu and for conveying the above information to your parishioners. For many it is often a great sadness not to be able to come to Mass. But it's never sinful to stay home when you're not feeling well.

We are called to bring the best of ourselves and our faith to the public square.

As Catholics
we must make room in our hearts for those with whom we disagree by focusing on the dignity of all and by modeling a better way.

I Pledge Civility

*To recognize the human dignity of those with whom I disagree, treat others with respect,
and rise above attacks
when directed at me.*

I Pledge Clarity

*To root my political viewpoints in the Gospel and a well formed conscience,
which involves prayer, conversation,
study and listening.
I will stand up for my convictions and speak out when I witness language that disparages others' dignity, while also listening and seeking to understand others' experiences.*

I Pledge Compassion

*To encounter others with a tone and posture which affirms that I honor the dignity of others and invites others to do the same.
I will presume others' best intentions and listen to their stories with empathy.
I will strive to understand before seeking to be understood.*

We Are Salt and Light

An Examination of Conscience: Loving Our Neighbors in the Public Square

How are we each called to be “salt and light”? What does it look like to be “builders of bridges” and “agents of dialogue,” in an atmosphere where personal attacks have become more common? How does Pope Francis’ reflection on the Gospel of Matthew challenge us to engage in public life differently?

“Although there are many reasons to be discouraged, amid many prophets of destruction and condemnation, and so many negative and despairing voices, may you be a positive force, salt and light for this society. Like the engine of a train, may you be the driving force leading all towards their destination. May you be sowers of hope, builders of bridges and agents of dialogue and harmony.”

Pope Francis, Message during Apostolic Journey, April 29, 2017

Through prayer and reflection, formed consciences and civil dialogue, we can bring our faith convictions to our civic life. Now use this reflection to think about where God is calling you to be “salt and light” as you participate in public life together during this election cycle.

- ◆ Read Matthew 5:13-16 on the call to be salt and light. As “salt and light” we are called to speak truth with love and bear witness to God’s love in our world. Salt gives flavor to any food it touches. It’s common across the world’s cultures. Our presence, like salt to food, enhances and strengthens our communities, especially wherever we can serve as witnesses of love and civility.

◆ Pray This Prayer & Reflect On These Questions

God of All Life, help us to appreciate the great gift that is human life formed in your image, a reflection of your holiness. Help us to recognize you in all whom you have created: children not yet born, families affected by poverty and war, people of different abilities, people from other lands, and all who are victims of hatred and racism.

Help us to bear witness to the dignity of all whom you have created, regardless of stage of life, or wealth, or ability, or color, or creed, for every person is fully equal in your loving eyes.

Share with us your holy knowledge that we are all your children, each bestowed with inherent dignity.

May your justice reign forever! Amen.

Where have I engaged or disengaged in the political process in the past? What has drawn me towards or away from engagement?

What stories from my community have left an impression on me and led me to ask, “What can I do to change this?”

Where have I been called to action? What issues or injustices have I felt drawn to work on in my community?

What areas of policy or dialogue elicit strong negative reactions in me? What is at the root of that feeling or why do I feel the way I do? When have I allowed that strong feeling to cause me to say or think something unkind about another person? Specifically:

On Social Media:

When has my engagement with (or about) those with whom I disagree failed to recognize their dignity as persons created in the image of God?

In Conversations:

When was I so focused on winning an argument that I failed to genuinely listen? When was my choice of words uncharitable? When did I paint others in disrespectful ways or engage in personal attack?

In My Day-to-day Perceptions and Attitudes:

When have I made assumptions about or failed to give the benefit of the doubt to those with whom I disagree?

When have I presumed others’ intentions / experiences before even hearing their stories or experiences?

When have I valued my political affiliation more than my identity as a disciple of Christ who is called to model love and charity, even in civil discourse?

How is Christ calling me to strive to recognize the human dignity of someone with whom I disagree?

- ◆ Close With A Prayer asking God about how you Might be called to be “salt and light” in your family, parish, school, workplace, or other community.

We exist in a culture of incivility and inaction. Following Christ we must work to transform that culture. We can be models of loving and respectful civil discourse, and challenge others to do the same. Salt, while common, is not a passive ingredient. Nor must we be passive participants in difficult conversations. In working to transform our culture, we can choose to be strong in our convictions while also open to learning more from others’ experiences. How are you called to share your faith with your community?

A Few Important Messages from your St. Vincent de Paul Society!

First, just a reminder that we send acknowledgements for all donations, memorials and tributes at the time they are received, and your monthly blue envelopes total is included on your year-end statement from the parish office. We do not send individual year-end statement for tax purposes.

Second, thanks to your continuing generosity, we were able to fill just short of half of the large St. Vincent de Paul truck last weekend with a variety of winter clothing items. Our Thrift Store will be able to offer these items to our neighbors in need for either very little or no cost, depending on the family's situation. In case you missed the collection, please know that you can always drop your donations of clothing, bedding, and small household items in the St. Vincent de Paul Collection Box on the parking lot behind church. You don't have to take these items to the Thrift Store. In fact, we get 'credits' to use for our neighbors in need for all donations deposited in this collection box. So save yourself a trip, drop your items off in the collection box any time, and know that your donation helps even more that way!

We ALWAYS want to make sure you know how much we appreciate all your donations all year long! Our Conference is so blessed to have the support of such generous benefactors so that we're able to continue helping our neighbors in need on behalf of our parish family.

And finally, just another reminder that, in case your New Year's resolution was to do even more to help our neighbors who are struggling to make ends meet, we are still in need of volunteers to help our Conference members with our food pantry. Opportunities include picking up food from the Food Bank and other locations, helping with preparations on the day before our food pantry (between 8-10 am), and helping on the day of our food pantry (second Saturday of each month). You wouldn't be doing any of these activities by yourself! This is a great way to help us help those in need, especially if you'd prefer to not commit to becoming a member at this time. However, you are always welcome to join us! If you are interested in this opportunity, you can contact any of our Conference officers: Marty Bligh, Mike Petroff, or Bob and Pat Stolte.

God bless you all for your continuing generosity!
