Human development is primarily a vocation, every person's calling from God 'to be more'.

Therefore, the Church teaches that the essential quality of 'authentic' development is to promote the good of every man (person) and of the whole man (person).

From the teachings of St. Giovanni Montini, Pope Paul VI, 1967

Embracing the Gift of Diversity in our School and Parish Communities

As we begin the new school year, our collaborative work to ensure our schools are embracing the gift of diversity will continue. Each school and parish has a Core Team that has been reviewing surveys, focus group notes, and the needs of their specific community. In the spring each Core Team submitted a set of goals as part of our Diversity and Inclusion planning. Even with the disruption caused by the coronavirus pandemic, we were able to have a Zoom meeting of the Core Team members, and the Federation's Diversity & Inclusion Committee continued to meet throughout the summer.

In support of this work, our Federation received a $50,000 Beyond Sunday Transformational Innovation Grant for 2019-20, which helped to fund the work of a Diversity & Inclusion Consultant through the initial planning process. The Archdiocese of St. Louis recognizes the importance of this work, and in July the Federation received the good news that the Archdiocese would provide funding to continue the Diversity & Inclusion consultant position for the 2020-21 school year. Dr. Alice Prince will continue in this role and help carry forward implementation of the collaborative and individual plans that have been established. She will also provide support to principals and teachers in the area of Social-Emotional Learning, which is essential for the well-being of our students in these uncertain times. A copy of these plans will be available soon for anyone who would like to read them.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Our national memory will keep September 11 holy for generations to come, as we remember the innocent dead. Our memories of the attack on our nation are intertwined with memories of how we human beings are natural symbol-makers. In one parish, as a candlelight vigil ended, the assembly, without being instructed, took their candles and stood shoulder to shoulder, down the steps and along the city streets for a quarter mile. Slowly, people came out of their houses bearing tapers and candles. In the first hours of crisis, we stood vigil, we prayed from the heart, and we celebrated the human ability to draw light out of terrible darkness.

Stories of that terrible day necessarily drift to tales of heroism, courage, dignity, faith, solidarity, hope, community. The church learned long ago through hard experience that “the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church.” Perhaps the victims of 9/11 have gifts to bring that we are only just discovering as believers in a just and loving God. They are teaching us still, and today is a day for lighting candles at the table and being silent for a moment before the abundance of God’s gifts. Today reminds us that we are capable of acts of indescribable beauty even in the face of great evil.

FORGIVENESS

Nearly ten years before, a son and father had parted ways when the business they shared went bankrupt. The son blamed the father. They did not speak to each other again.

Then the father became seriously ill. The mother called the son and told him he had better come soon. The son walked sheepishly into the hospital room. The father motioned his son to him and whispered: "Did you ever think you could do anything that would keep me from loving you?"

Resentment and anger are foul things, the first reading from Sirach tells us. Remember the last things. Stop hating. Live by the commandments. As St. Paul writes to the Romans, we are to live for the Lord and die for the Lord.

Jesus' parable in today's Gospel reminds us of God's compassion. The immense sin of humanity has been forgiven and stricken from the record. We are to forgive others in the same way.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Remember the commandments and hate not your neighbor (Sirach 27:30 — 28:7).

Psalm — The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion (Psalm 103).

Second Reading — Whether we live, or whether we die, we do so for the Lord (Romans 14:7-9).

Gospel — Forgive one another from your heart (Matthew 18:21-35).
