Human development is primarily a vocation, every person's calling from God 'to be more'.

Therefore, the Church teaches that the essential quality of 'authentic' development is to promote the good of every man (person) and of the whole man (person).

From the teachings of St. Giovanni Montini, Pope Paul VI, 1967 thy will be done – the birthplace of all hope am I my brother's keeper?

In the Bible conversations with God are universal. These “God talks” are bigger and beyond the specific characters or particular situations. These conversations are often brief, and worth our memorizing. They focus on what’s really important, providing insight and guidance for living each day with hope. Jesus paid attention to these conversations and embodied them in his life and ministry. In so doing Jesus invites and challenges every community of faith to do the same.

One such conversation that has captured my attention recently takes place early in the Book of Genesis. These talks that Adam and Eve and their children have with our Creator God reveal and constantly remind us of how and why we were made and who we are.

One of those conversations goes like this: Cain attacked his brother Able and killed him. Then the Lord asked, “Where is your brother, Able?” He answered, “I don’t know. Am I my brother’s keeper?” Then the Lord said, “What have you done? Listen, your brother’s blood cries out to me from the soil!” For Cain, God then promises that the soil will always be sterile, without fruitfulness. Even more, the Lord says, “You shall become a restless wanderer on the Earth.”

Our Annual Appeal has an obvious and urgent impact on those served by the ministries of our Church.

It also has a positive impact on those who give.

Every parishioner who gives strengthens their connection to the life and mission of the Church.

This is a conversation people have been having with God, with each other, and with themselves for a long time. To what extent are we each other’s “keeper”? How often our lives are fruitless, and we too find ourselves wandering restlessly? How hard it is for human beings to address the question, “What have you done?” With this in mind please take some time to look over this year’s ACA Case Statement.

Try to identify the “brothers and sisters” who will benefit from your gift or pledge. Make it personal! Read or listen to the stories of those who are being cared for. No gift is too small. We invite everyone to participate based on their own personal circumstances, and we promise to honor every gift.

aca guest speaker welcome to holy name

M Denise Thomas is a native of Kansas City, Missouri, was raised with her 12 brothers and sisters in a good Catholic family, and visits her family in Kansas City every month. She and her twin sister went to Catholic elementary and secondary schools, before graduating from the University of Missouri (Kansas City). She taught high school for 6 years, before joining the business sales department of Southwestern Bell/AT&T. She retired in 2015 after 37 years in a variety of management positions. Since then, she became a caretaker for two 90 year olds until their passing.

She continues to volunteer in her church, St. Elizabeth, Mother of John the Baptist, in the City of St. Louis. In addition, she volunteers with her sorority, with the AT&T resource group, The Black Rep, The United Way, and most recently serving on the Board of the Annual Catholic Appeal.

We are most grateful for you making the time to be with us this weekend.
