Human development is primarily a vocation, every person's calling from God 'to be more'.

Therefore, the Church teaches that the essential quality of 'authentic' development is to promote the good of every man (person) and of the whole man (person).

mission notes

we are a mission parish with a mission

welcome archbishop rozanski

This weekend we are happy to welcome Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski to our parish and especially to the celebration of the Eucharist with our community.

His presence and our gathering for Eucharist are an important and clear reminder that our Church is much bigger than any one parish alone. We are called together as a community of communities. Our common mission is proclaiming the good news of the Risen Christ to all peoples and in uniquely various ways, depending on the people and place of each faith community. I am quite sure that over the past year of being with us he has already been learning much about the truth of this.

This weekend we will give thanks to God with him for all that he is learning about us. We give thanks for the gifts and talents of the people of the Church of St. Louis and give thanks for the unfolding revelation of what God is calling on him to accomplish. And we thank God that he is the one now commissioned to lead us into the future without fear and with the sure knowledge of all we have to offer those most in need of knowing and experiencing Christ's love.

Our Archbishop was born in August 1958 in Baltimore, the oldest of 3 sons. Kenneth and his wife, Lisa, have 2 children and Albert and his wife, Danielle, have 1 child. All of whom reside in Maryland.

Ordained a priest in November 1984 for the Archdiocese of Baltimore, he served in parish ministry, including 11 years as a pastor, until 2004, then becoming Auxiliary Bishop in Baltimore. In June 2014 he was appointed Bishop of Springfield (MA) until his appointment and installation as the 10th Archbishop of St. Louis on August 25, 2021.

His coat of arms (right side) symbolizes both his Polish heritage and service in the Archdiocese of Baltimore. It also references his baptismal and family names in the cross of St. Michael and the rose flower. The open book is the word of God he has been called to proclaim.

The left side with great detail symbolizes the Church and the St. Louis Community he has now been called to serve. We pray together today and everyday that his life of service will be filled with the deep and constant joy which he proclaims as a most promising way for us to live as well.

partnerships in ministry room at the inn

Room At The Inn is a charity assisting homeless women and children in the St. Louis County area. RATI networks with area churches to provide a safe place for clients to have dinner, spend the night and have breakfast in the morning. Our parish is one of these network churches.

Since the pandemic clients have been staying at the shelter and not going to the area churches. This sheltering place has strained RATI resources. To help relieve some of the strain we will be collecting here much needed supplies for RATI starting November 27th until December 19th.

*Lord, keep us attentive to the needs of all,
that, sharing their grief and pain, their joy and hope,
we may faithfully bring them
the good news of salvation and go forward with them along the way of your Kingdom.*

*Eucharistic Prayer—Jesus, the Way to the Father

A donation box marked “Room At The Inn” will be in the back vestibule of the church. If you prefer to make a gift card or monetary donation, place your gift in an envelope marked “Room At The Inn”. Return in the collection basket or drop off at the Parish Office. Thank you for your generous support and continuing prayers for those in need.

We Are Salt and Light

An Examination of Conscience: Loving Our Neighbors in the Public Square

How are we each called to be “salt and light”? What does it look like to be “builders of bridges” and “agents of dialogue,” in an atmosphere where personal attacks have become more common? Pope Francis’ reflects on Matthew and challenges us to engage in public life differently?

“Although there are many reasons to be discouraged, amid many prophets of destruction and condemnation, and so many negative and despairing voices, may you be a positive force, salt and light for this society. Like the engine of a train, may you be the driving force leading all towards their destination. May you be sowers of hope, builders of bridges and agents of dialogue and harmony.”

Pope Francis, Message during Apostolic Journey, April 29, 2017

Through prayer and reflection, formed consciences and civil dialogue, we can bring our faith convictions to our civic life. Use this reflection to think about where God is calling you to be “salt and light” as you participate in public life together with family, friends, and neighbors.

- ◆ Read Matthew 5:13-16 on the call to be salt and light. As “salt and light” we are called to speak truth with love and bear witness to God’s love in our world. Salt gives flavor to any food it touches. It’s common across the world’s cultures. Our presence, like salt to food, enhances and strengthens our communities, especially wherever we can serve as witnesses of love and civility.

- ◆ Pray This Prayer & Reflect On These Questions

God of All Life, help us to appreciate the great gift that is human life formed in your image, a reflection of your holiness. Help us to recognize you in all whom you have created: children not yet born, families affected by poverty and war, people of different abilities, people from other lands, and all who are victims of hatred and racism.

Help us to bear witness to the dignity of all whom you have created, regardless of stage of life, or wealth, or ability, or color, or creed, for every person is fully equal in your loving eyes.

Share with us your holy knowledge that we are all your children, each bestowed with inherent dignity. May your justice reign forever! Amen.

CIVILIZE IT

it's a conversation
more than a kingdom

Where have I engaged or disengaged in the political process in the past? What has drawn me towards or away from engagement?

What stories from my community have left an impression on me and led me to ask, “What can I do to change this?”

Where have I been called to action? What issues or injustices have I felt drawn to work on in my community?

What areas of policy or dialogue elicit strong negative reactions in me? What is at the root of that feeling or why do I feel the way I do? When have I allowed that strong feeling to cause me to say or think something unkind about another person? Specifically:

On Social Media:

When has my engagement with (or about) those with whom I disagree failed to recognize their dignity as persons created in the image of God?

In Conversations:

When was I so focused on winning an argument that I failed to genuinely listen? When was my choice of words uncharitable? When did I paint others in disrespectful ways or engage in personal attack?

In My Day-to-day Perceptions and Attitudes:

When have I made assumptions about or failed to give the benefit of the doubt to those with whom I disagree? When have I presumed others’ intentions / experiences before even hearing their stories or experiences?

When have I valued my political affiliation more than my identity as a disciple of Christ who is called to model love and charity, even in civil discourse?

How is Christ calling me to strive to recognize the human dignity of someone with whom I disagree?

- ◆ Close With A Prayer asking God about how you Might be called to be “salt and light” in your family, parish, school, workplace, or other community.

We exist in a culture of incivility and inaction. Following Christ we must work to transform that culture. We can be models of loving and respectful civil discourse, and challenge others to do the same.

Salt, while common, is not a passive ingredient. Nor must we be passive participants in difficult conversations. In working to transform our culture, we can choose to be strong in our convictions while also open to learning more from others’ experiences. How are you called to share your faith with your community?

Rest in Peace

Please pray for the repose of the souls of Helen Engel, Jeannette Fischer, Frances Walsh and all who have died this week. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.

Monthly Candlelight Community Peace/Social Justice Vigil

Reminder that our next monthly candlelight community peace/social justice vigil will be held outdoors on the front steps of our church on Sunday, December 26, at 7 pm, rain or shine. This monthly vigil is sponsored by the Holy Name of Jesus Social Justice group, Justice Grows, and will last 30 minutes. The purpose of these monthly vigils will be to pray for unity in our community, to raise awareness of social justice issues in our greater metropolitan community, and to pray for an end to violence. These monthly vigils consist of music, a time of silent reflection, and group prayer.

All are welcome to join us every month or whenever you're available to pray with us. We hope to see you on December 26 at 7 pm.

Thank you from your St. Vincent de Paul Society

We are always so overwhelmed by the generosity of our parish family! Thanks to everyone who continues to help our neighbors in need through your monthly blue envelopes and memorials, as well as donations of non-perishable food items in the containers located at the entrances to church. It's because of your kindness and generosity that we're able to help so many neighbors in need – more than 150 families each month!

And a gift suggestion as the holidays draw near . . . if you don't know what to get someone on your shopping list, please consider a donation to our St. Vincent de Paul Society in their honor. If you'd like, an acknowledgement can be sent to them closer to the holidays, OR we can provide one for you to present yourself or send with your holiday card!

And finally, thank you, too, for all the donations of clothing and shoes that continue to be deposited in the Thrift Store container on the parking lot. PLEASE NOTE: If the container is full, please bring your small bags (so they'll fit easily into the container) containing clothing items and shoes back at another time after the container has been emptied so they're not left sitting on the parking lot. We receive a check from the Thrift Store every time the container is full!
