Human development is primarily a vocation, every person's calling from God 'to be more'.

Therefore, the Church teaches that the essential quality of 'authentic' development is to promote the good of every man (person) and of the whole man (person).

every parish member is called to pray & listen

The All Things New pastoral planning process invites every Catholic to join in the effort of creating a “new Church” for the real world we all now live in. Keep these pointers in mind:

Listening is a Planning Principle ...

- ... permeated by prayer
- ... focused on fruitfulness in ministry
- ... rooted in the teachings of our faith
- ... supported by effective pastoral practices
- ... based on a culture of encounter and trust
- ... guided by trained leaders
- ... committed to intentional stewardship

Good Listeners will be Tempted ...

- ... to lead themselves, not be led by God
- ... to focus on their own immediate concerns
- ... to see only “problems”
- ... to focus only on structures
- ... to not look beyond the Church
- ... to conflict and division
- ... to view ourselves as against each other
- ... to listen only to the highly engaged

ALL THINGS NEW

STEADFAST IN FAITH • FORWARD IN HOPE

an essential dimension of Church
the Spirit in the assembly

In October 2021 Pope Francis opened a two-year Synod in Rome designed to involve the whole world. He instructed the Christian community to “keep us from becoming a ‘museum church’, beautiful but mute, with much past and little future”. Pope Francis wants us to ask these critical questions:

In the Church, are we good at listening?

How good is the hearing of our heart?

Do we allow people to express themselves, to walk in faith, even though they have had difficulties in life? To be part of the life of the community without being hindered, rejected, or judged?

At the opening session of the Synod, Pope Francis told participants that this process must include all the Church’s members, especially those frequently marginalized.

All Things New is a pastoral planning initiative that highly values prayer and careful listening to one another and to the communities we are called to serve. Journeying together through the next 18 months requires a mutual commitment to these values. Please review and remember what it takes to be a good listener and the temptations which may throw you off track as we move ahead. (See Left Column)

As most of us know from experience growing up and into the future of our lives often requires an honest appraisal,

“even chilly confrontation, with the truth of who we are, followed by a realization of how much the Spirit’s help is required to get us to where we are called to be.”

If such humility and openness to grace should prove the Synod’s main fruit, it will yield a rich harvest indeed.”

(Austen Ivereigh, Pope Francis’s Let Us Dream: A Path to a Better World)

*I pray not only for them, but also for those
who will believe in me through their word,
so that they may all be one,
as you, Father, are in me and I in you,
that they also may be in us,
that the world may believe that you sent me.*

*Grant that all the faithful of the Church,
looking into the signs of the times by the light of faith, may constantly devote themselves to the service of the Gospel.*

*Keep us attentive to the needs of all that sharing their grief and pain, their joy and hope, we may faithfully bring them
the good news of salvation and go forward with them along the way of your Kingdom.*

Dear Parishioners,

As the Archdiocese begins its All Things New Strategic Pastoral Planning Process, I am aware that in times past, initiatives have fallen short of completion. For those who experienced frustration, anger, resentment and wounds from these past processes, I acknowledge your pain, struggle and hurt and I pray that the Lord may bless you with his healing. I assure you as your Archbishop that All Things New will both affect and be completed by the entire Archdiocese.

For this strategic pastoral planning process to be successful, I ask for your participation. You are invaluable in this process and I need you to share your insights from the past and your hopes for the future as we strive to create a vibrant church in St. Louis. Let me be clear that there is no preconceived plan. Prayerful discernment, honest discussions and listening sessions on how to best use our resources to evangelize the world of today, while looking to tomorrow, will be crucial elements to this process.

Let us lift each other up in prayer and collaborate with each other in order to foster greater unity and mutual care in our communities. Be assured of my prayers for you, your parish, and your families throughout All Things New. May we begin this initiative with confidence that the Lord who is always with us will guide us and lead us to a vibrant future here in the Archdiocese of St. Louis. May we each in our own way, give the Lord permission to make ALL THINGS NEW!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Mitchell T. Rozanski
Archbishop of St. Louis

THIS WEEK IN FORMED

This week on Friday, February 11, we celebrate the Feast day of Our Lady of Lourdes. Below you will find a link to a book entitled: The Writings of St Bernadette by Patricia Mceachern, PHD.

“While the story of the apparitions of Our Lady of Lourdes to Bernadette Soubirous in 1858 are well known, relatively few people are familiar with the saint’s own spiritual insights and holiness....This book presents a wide selection of St Bernadette’s thoughts, advice, sayings and prayers through the touching words of her spiritual diary, notes, and letters to friends and family.”

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — In a vision Isaiah is called to be a messenger for the LORD of hosts. Isaiah responds, “Send me!” (Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8)

Psalm — In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord (Psalm 138).

Second Reading — Paul reminds us of the gospel he preached through which we are saved, if we believe it (1 Corinthians 15:1-11 [3-8, 11]).

Gospel — Jesus directs Simon to take his boat into deep water for a miraculous catch of fish. Simon and his partners leave all to follow Jesus (Luke 5:1-11).

EVANGELIZATION NEWS FROM THE DESK OF
SISTER MARY LAWRENCE, SSND

Several weeks ago, I wrote about the plaques by each of the doors of church that identify the four virtues or characteristics of a Catholic/Christian person, family organization or parish: Community, Gospel Values, Worship and Service.

In the next couple of weeks, I would like to take each one of these virtues and expand on them. Let's start with COMMUNITY.

We are called as a community to bring people closer to God and to one another -to a sense of belonging and being “connected”.

The first Bible verse that immediately comes to mind is one found in the Gospel of Matthew. Our Lord says, “For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them” (Matthew 18:20). So, the best part about gathering together as Catholics/Christians is that we can be assured that Jesus is there among us. Christ is in our hearts by virtue of our Baptism; by virtue of our incorporation into His Body. So, as we meet with other members of our parish community in church, being a part of a parish organization or small group, adult faith formation, giving service to others or just having fun together, we are meeting with our Lord.

When God reminds us not to neglect meeting together, God is referring to the Eucharist as the center of our community. We draw our strength from our parish family as well as our own families. The love and support we find in our parish community impels us to go out with love, to encourage each other, to carry out good works in love; to be missionary disciples.

The first step to feeling more connected to the parish family is by attending the Sunday Eucharist or daily Mass with other parishioners. There, like the apostles, we meet our God in the sharing of the Word and in the “breaking of the bread” together. God is inviting us, daily, to renew our strength and ask help with other needs we have by gathering together at the Eucharist.
