"where do you want to go today?"

venturing beyond

Years ago the Microsoft Corporation adopted this question as its motto. I've always found it carries both an invitation and an excitement that reminds me of one of my favorite Biblical heroes—Abraham. Even on the worst day of his life—when God tests his faith beyond belief in asking for the sacrifice of his only son—unknowingly he responds to God's call with "Ready"! My jealousy for that kind of faith seems to lie in the reality that he gets out of bed everyday with that on his lips. "Ready" to go wherever and for anything God wants or needs to be accomplished. All while having no idea of what the day may bring.

The relationship between Abraham and God is built on a high level of mutual trust. With that they can do anything they can imagine no matter how difficult it may be.

*"Shared experiences, over time,
are what make relationships and communities strong."*

Michelle Boehne, 44 Year Parishioner at St. John the Baptist Parish (South St. Louis)

I have found that the process of All Things New requires the faith of Abraham. As we begin the years of implementation the parishes of the Church of St. Louis are being called to reevaluate their current pastoral care, social outreach, and evangelization efforts to see how they can be refined or reinvented, even those parishes where there is no change of pastors or to the parish structure.

Celebrating the Feast of Corpus Christi it's good for us to remember that Paul's experience of the Risen Jesus cultivated a strong sense of communion with all other people. He found at the table of the Lord an energy—a "readiness"—for the work of salvation. In this we will always have a future well worth looking forward to ourselves.

progress report on all things new decisions

Archbishop Rozanski recently wrote in the St. Louis Review: "Over the next several months, our priests will discern with their people what the best use of our facilities should be. Priority will be given to providing the sacraments and necessary pastoral care to all who live within their boundaries and reimagining what a vibrant, evangelizing parish should look like."

Father Peter Faimega, our new pastor, is now in the process of forming a new Parish Council, scheduled to begin their meetings on June 20th and July 18th. At this writing I am finalizing the appointment of 5 to 6 members from our Pastoral Council/Transition Team to serve with parish leaders from St. Norbert and St. Angela Merici. Over all they will be advising Father Peter on the formation of a new parish. This Council will assist him with—

- * Building a Sense of Community
- * Designating Worship Sites & Schedules
- * Addressing Mission, Ministries & Staffing
- * Choosing a New Parish Name
- * Determining the Best Use of Facilities

Please keep praying for the gifts of the Holy Spirit we most need that our Church may continue to move from fear to courage—from silence to a bold proclamation of the Gospel—our first and most important mission.

Monthly Candlelight Community Peace/Social Justice Vigil

Our monthly candlelight community peace/social justice vigils are held outdoors on the front steps of our church on the last Sunday of each month. Our next vigil will be held on June 25, at 7 pm. In case of inclement weather, we will gather in the Church vestibule. This monthly vigil is sponsored by the Holy Name of Jesus Social Justice group, Justice Grows, and lasts 30 minutes. The purpose of these monthly vigils is to pray for unity in our community, to raise awareness of social justice issues in our greater metropolitan community, and to pray for an end to violence, especially gun violence. These vigils consist of music, a time of silent reflection, and group prayer. All are welcome to join us every month or whenever you're available to pray with us. We hope to see you on June 25, 7:00pm

A message from your

St. Vincent de Paul Society

We just want to thank everyone who enables us to assist our neighbors in need on your behalf, either through the use of your monthly blue envelopes, periodic monetary donations, memorials, tributes, non-perishable food donations in the containers at the entrances to church, donations in the Thrift Store bin on the parking lot, and/or your prayers for those in need. Your generosity is overwhelming and always appreciated, both by our Conference members and the neighbors in need whom we serve. May God bless you all for your kindness!
